12 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

13
14 Section 1. Section 403.7033, Florida Statutes, is amended
15 to read:

16 403.7033 Departmental analysis of particular recyclable
17 materials.—The Legislature finds that prudent regulation of 18 recyclable materials is crucial to the ongoing welfare of 19 Florida's ecology and economy. As such, the Department of 20 Environmental Protection shall undertake an analysis of the need 21 for new or different regulation of auxiliary containers,
22 wrappings, or disposable plastic bags used by consumers to carry 23 products from retail establishments. The analysis shall include 24 input from state and local government agencies, stakeholders, 25 private businesses, and citizens, and shall evaluate the 26 efficacy and necessity of both statewide and local regulation of 27 these materials. To ensure consistent and effective 28 implementation, the department shall submit a report with 29 conclusions and recommendations to the Legislature no later than

February 1, 2010. ~~Until such time that the Legislature adopts the recommendations of the department, no local government, local governmental agency, or state government agency may enact any rule, regulation, or ordinance regarding use, disposition, sale, prohibition, restriction, or tax of such auxiliary containers, wrappings, or disposable plastic bags.~~

Section 2. Section 500.90, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

~~500.90 Regulation of polystyrene products preempted to department. The regulation of the use or sale of polystyrene products by entities regulated under this chapter is preempted to the department. This preemption does not apply to local ordinances or provisions thereof enacted before January 1, 2016, and does not limit the authority of a local government to restrict the use of polystyrene by individuals on public property, temporary vendors on public property, or entities engaged in a contractual relationship with the local government for the provision of goods or services, unless such use is otherwise preempted by law.~~

Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2020.
