Dear Sue Snider,

Thank you for registering with NCPA! As a new participant we would like to introduce you to our service offerings.

As a registrant of NCPA, you will have access to all of our national cooperative contracts. Our contracts are thoroughly evaluated, then awarded to reduce the cost of goods and services by leveraging the purchasing power of public agencies in all 50 states. NCPA utilizes state-of-the-art procurement resources and solutions that result in contracts that ensure all public agencies are receiving products and services of the highest quality at the lowest prices.

All NCPA contracts have been competitively solicited by a lead public agency. Each solicitation contains language that allows the contract to be used by other government agencies. State statutes allow one government agency to purchase from contracts competitively solicited by another government agency.

To view the available contracts and the awarded vendors, which are now available to you as an NCPA participant, please visit our website at www.ncpa.us/Vendors. On our website you will also find corresponding due diligence documentation and supporting information on all of our vendors. For your records, a copy of the Master Intergovernmental Cooperative Purchasing Agreement (MICPA) can be downloaded here. We encourage you to treat our contracts as an extension of your own, as they are available for your immediate usage. There are no costs or obligations for your organization to participate with us. Registration is free and there are no volume minimums on purchases made through our contracts. Billing is executed directly from the servicing vendor, which is no different than if your agency were using your own contracts.

Communication with you and your organization is important to us, and our goal is to keep you informed of new solicitations and contract awards when finalized. To stay engaged with NCPA you can follow us on Twitter, like us on Facebook, or connect with us on LinkedIn. And, of course, we are always available to answer any questions via e-mail or phone.

We're excited that you're now a part of NCPA and we look forward to working with you! Please continue to share your feedback on our contracts and NCPA's service offerings. Click here to return to the NCPA Home Page.

Best regards,

Jonathan Applegate
Director, Operations
