ROTARY CLUB OF KEY WEST

To: whom it may concern,

I have known George Galvan for the past 10 years now. I have grown to trust and respect George for his dedication, loyalty, and most of all his great work ethic. George is a true team player and A past President of our Club, George Work constantly to archive the goal, George Has worked in Numerous Fundraising Events in Order to help this Community, And Also served in a Few Other Board and He has proven time and again that he does not need supervision. He has brought to the rotary club of Key West the Leadership of the club during his year as the President. I have to say as the president of the Rotary Club of Key West George will definitely be a great asset to your board as he is for my club.

George has always shown his commitment by working all of the hours required to get the work done even dedicated his family time to serve the community. I feel that George would be adding a great asset to your board as well.

Sincerely

Frank Herrada
