

Save the Western Union

The Schooner Western Union the Flagship of Key West and the State of Florida

A Living, Working Museum and the Most Important Piece of Key West
Nautical History We Still Have

Save the Western Union

The Schooner Western Union

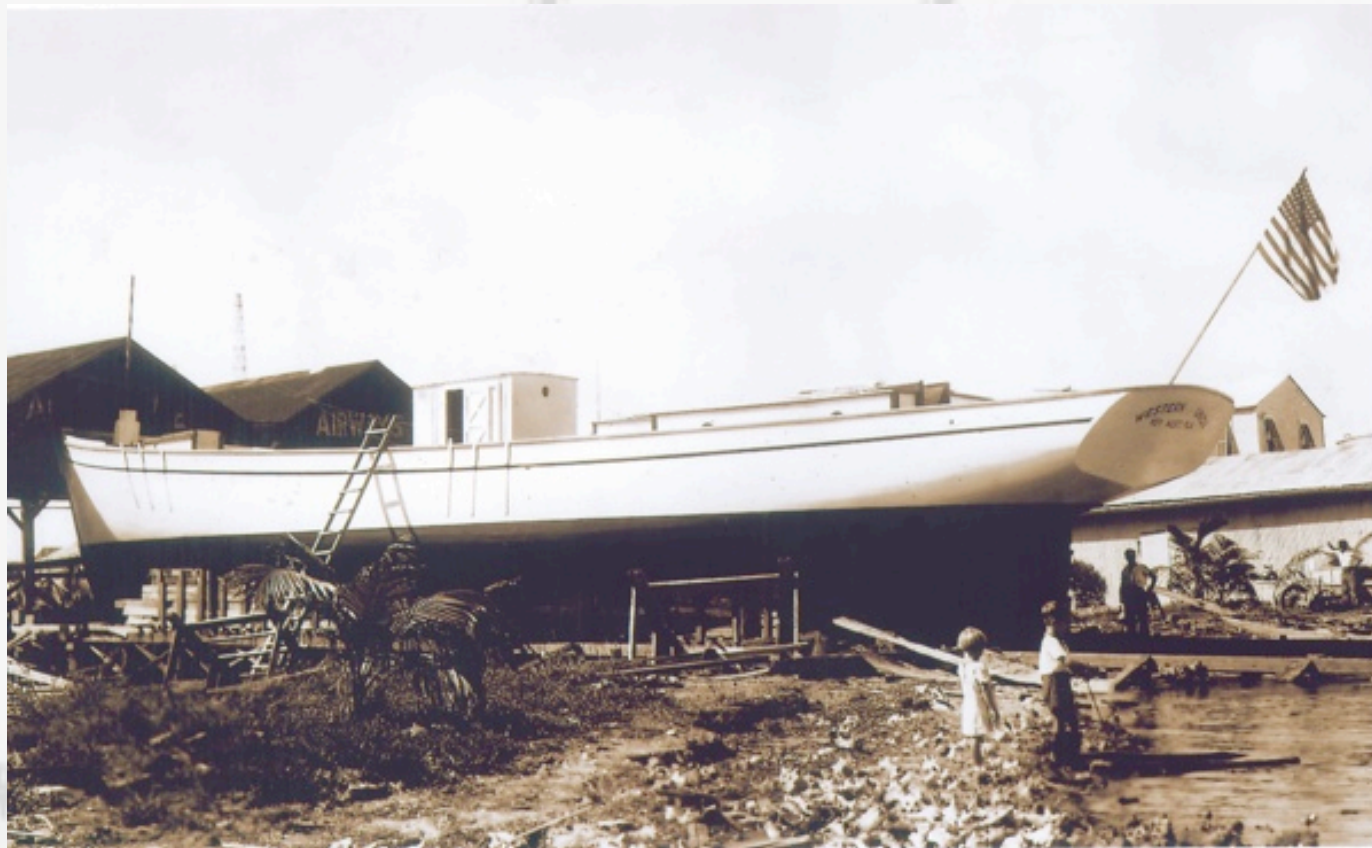

- Fabricated in the Arch Shipyards in the Cayman Islands
- Constructed and launched off Simonton beach in Key West in 1939.
- Length 92' on deck & 126' overall, beam 24', draft 7.5', masts 65', displacement 218 tons
- Hull is yellow pine, frame and stringers are mahogany, and spars are Douglas fir
- Twin GM 671 six cylinder diesel engines
- Speed 8 knots under power, 12.8 knots under sail

Save the Western Union

1939 Simonton Beach

Save the Western Union

1939 Simonton Beach

Save the Western Union

Working for the Company

- Commissioned by Thompson Enterprises under contract with Western Union Company
- Logged more than 30,000 miles maintaining communications cables that connected Key West with Cuba and the rest of the Caribbean
- During WWII served as an auxiliary submarine picket ship & maintained critical comms links
- Sailed the Caribbean and South Atlantic until 1974 when she was sold by the Western Union Company

Save the Western Union

Working Cable at Sea

Save the Western Union

1974 - 1997

- In 1974 she was converted into a passenger vessel and operated out of Key West
- In 1976 she participated in Operation Sail in New York City as part of the United States Bicentennial
- On 16 May 1984 she was placed on the National Register of Historic Places
- In 1984 she was sold to Vision Quest and used for a troubled youth program
- In 1997 she was purchased by HTA and operated with sunset and day sails and charter trips.

Save the Western Union

2006-2013

- November 2006 SWUPS was established to restore and preserve the schooner as a working museum commemorating Florida's seafaring heritage.
- October 2007 HTA donated the schooner to SWUPS.
- In 2008 a major refit was needed & the "Save the Union" campaign was launched.
- $1.2 million in donations & grants received from private citizens, the TDC & HFKF for the restoration.
- April 2011 Western Union re-launched.
- 2012 designated as Flagship of the State of Florida
- She continued sailing until July 2013.

Save the Western Union

2010 On the Hard in Truman Annex

Save the Western Union

Flagship of the State of Florida

Save the Western Union

2014 and the future

- When sailing again we expect her to continue to serve the locals, schools, NFP groups, tourist visitors, corporate groups, etc.
- When sailing the Schooner Western Union pays for her operations with a little set aside for annual maintenance
- She needs a significant refit now to meet Coast Guard passenger sailing requirements

Save the Western Union

Fundraising Focus

- Bight Board Support to be matched by the State of Florida, 2 for 1
- Local Fundraising including matching grants
- Crowdfunding site <http://schoonerwesternunion.causevox.com/>
- BP claim

Save the Western Union

Thank you for this opportunity to talk about how the City of Key West and the State of Florida can help Save the Western Union

We must preserve our maritime heritage

Are there any questions?

<http://schoonerwesternunion.causevox.com>

Schooner Western Union Preservation Society