

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Our branches of the United States Military, through their respective Community Service Programs, encourage and expand the involvement of volunteers in the communities in which they live and work. The goal of these programs is to promote volunteerism and community service between their personnel and local communities.

WHEREAS, The strong ties between our local military and civilian communities is further strengthened by the many volunteers from all the service branches who have donated countless hours during this past year to make the community a better place,

WHEREAS, What makes our community so special is that military service goes beyond military duties, where everybody is contributing to make Key West a better place to live

WHEREAS, We are inspired by what you do, and we grateful for what you do.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Margaret Romero, Commissioner of District 5 of the City of Key West, hereby proclaim December 16, 2015 as

Military Volunteer Appreciation Day

WITNESS my hand and seal of the City of Key West, Florida, this 2nd day of December, 2015.
