House Joint Resolution

A joint resolution proposing amendments to Sections 3 and 4 of Article VII and the creation of Section 34 of Article XII of the State Constitution to authorize the Legislature, by general law, to exempt from ad valorem taxation the assessed value of solar devices or renewable energy source devices that are subject to tangible personal property tax, to authorize the Legislature, by general law, to prohibit the consideration of the installation of such devices in determining the assessed value of residential and nonresidential real property for the purpose of ad valorem taxation, and to provide effective and expiration dates.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendments to Sections 3 and 4 of Article VII and the creation of Section 34 of Article XII of the State Constitution are agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of this state for approval or rejection at the next general election or at an earlier special election specifically authorized by law for that purpose:

ARTICLE VII

FINANCE AND TAXATION

SECTION 3. Taxes; exemptions.—

27 (a) All property owned by a municipality and used 28 exclusively by it for municipal or public purposes shall be 29 exempt from taxation. A municipality, owning property outside 30 the municipality, may be required by general law to make payment 31 to the taxing unit in which the property is located. Such 32 portions of property as are used predominantly for educational, 33 literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes may be 34 exempted by general law from taxation.

35 (b) There shall be exempt from taxation, cumulatively, to 36 every head of a family residing in this state, household goods
37 and personal effects to the value fixed by general law, not less 38 than one thousand dollars, and to every widow or widower or 39 person who is blind or totally and permanently disabled, 40 property to the value fixed by general law not less than five 41 hundred dollars.

42 (c) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of its 43 respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this 44 subsection and general law, grant community and economic 45 development ad valorem tax exemptions to new businesses and 46 expansions of existing businesses, as defined by general law.
47 Such an exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county 48 or municipality, and only after the electors of the county or 49 municipality voting on such question in a referendum authorize 50 the county or municipality to adopt such ordinances. An 51 exemption so granted shall apply to improvements to real 52 property made by or for the use of a new business and 53 improvements to real property related to the expansion of an 54 existing business and shall also apply to tangible personal 55 property of such new business and tangible personal property 56 related to the expansion of an existing business. The amount or 57 limits of the amount of such exemption shall be specified by 58 general law. The period of time for which such exemption may be 59 granted to a new business or expansion of an existing business 60 shall be determined by general law. The authority to grant such 61 exemption shall expire ten years from the date of approval by 62 the electors of the county or municipality, and may be renewable 63 by referendum as provided by general law.

64 (d) Any county or municipality may, for the purpose of its 65 respective tax levy and subject to the provisions of this 66 subsection and general law, grant historic preservation ad
67 valorem tax exemptions to owners of historic properties. This 68 exemption may be granted only by ordinance of the county or 69 municipality. The amount or limits of the amount of this 70 exemption and the requirements for eligible properties must be 71 specified by general law. The period of time for which this 72 exemption may be granted to a property owner shall be determined 73 by general law.

74 (e) By general law and subject to conditions specified
75 therein:7

76 (1) Twenty-five thousand dollars of the assessed value of 77 property subject to tangible personal property tax shall be 78 exempt from ad valorem taxation.

79 (2) The assessed value of solar devices or renewable 80 energy source devices subject to tangible personal property tax
81 may be exempt from ad valorem taxation, subject to limitations
82 provided by general law.

83 (f) There shall be granted an ad valorem tax exemption for 84 real property dedicated in perpetuity for conservation purposes, 85 including real property encumbered by perpetual conservation 86 easements or by other perpetual conservation protections, as 87 defined by general law.

88 (g) By general law and subject to the conditions specified 89 therein, each person who receives a homestead exemption as 90 provided in section 6 of this article; who was a member of the 91 United States military or military reserves, the United States 92 Coast Guard or its reserves, or the Florida National Guard; and 93 who was deployed during the preceding calendar year on active 94 duty outside the continental United States, Alaska, or Hawaii in 95 support of military operations designated by the legislature 96 shall receive an additional exemption equal to a percentage of 97 the taxable value of his or her homestead property. The 98 applicable percentage shall be calculated as the number of days 99 during the preceding calendar year the person was deployed on 100 active duty outside the continental United States, Alaska, or 101 Hawaii in support of military operations designated by the 102 legislature divided by the number of days in that year.

103 SECTION 4. Taxation; assessments.—By general law 104 regulations shall be prescribed which shall secure a just valuation of all property for ad valorem taxation, provided:

(a) Agricultural land, land producing high water recharge to Florida's aquifers, or land used exclusively for noncommercial recreational purposes may be classified by general law and assessed solely on the basis of character or use.

(b) As provided by general law and subject to conditions, limitations, and reasonable definitions specified therein, land used for conservation purposes shall be classified by general law and assessed solely on the basis of character or use.

(c) Pursuant to general law tangible personal property held for sale as stock in trade and livestock may be valued for taxation at a specified percentage of its value, may be classified for tax purposes, or may be exempted from taxation.

(d) All persons entitled to a homestead exemption under Section 6 of this Article shall have their homestead assessed at just value as of January 1 of the year following the effective date of this amendment. This assessment shall change only as provided in this subsection.

(1) Assessments subject to this subsection shall be changed annually on January 1st of each year; but those changes in assessments shall not exceed the lower of the following:

a. Three percent (3%) of the assessment for the prior year.

b. The percent change in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers, U.S. City Average, all items 1967=100, or successor reports for the preceding calendar year as initially

131 reported by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of 132 Labor Statistics.

133 (2) No assessment shall exceed just value.

134 (3) After any change of ownership, as provided by general 135 law, homestead property shall be assessed at just value as of 136 January 1 of the following year, unless the provisions of 137 paragraph (8) apply. Thereafter, the homestead shall be assessed 138 as provided in this subsection.

139 (4) New homestead property shall be assessed at just value 140 as of January 1st of the year following the establishment of the 141 homestead, unless the provisions of paragraph (8) apply. That 142 assessment shall only change as provided in this subsection.

143 (5) Changes, additions, reductions, or improvements to 144 homestead property shall be assessed as provided for by general
145 law; provided, however, after the adjustment for any change, 146 addition, reduction, or improvement, the property shall be 147 assessed as provided in this subsection.

148 (6) In the event of a termination of homestead status, the 149 property shall be assessed as provided by general law.

150 (7) The provisions of this amendment are severable. If any 151 of the provisions of this amendment shall be held 152 unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the 153 decision of such court shall not affect or impair any remaining 154 provisions of this amendment.

155 (8)a. A person who establishes a new homestead as of 156 January 1, 2009, or January 1 of any subsequent year and who has received a homestead exemption pursuant to Section 6 of this Article as of January 1 of either of the two years immediately preceding the establishment of the new homestead is entitled to have the new homestead assessed at less than just value. If this revision is approved in January of 2008, a person who establishes a new homestead as of January 1, 2008, is entitled to have the new homestead assessed at less than just value only if that person received a homestead exemption on January 1, 2007. The assessed value of the newly established homestead shall be determined as follows:

1. If the just value of the new homestead is greater than or equal to the just value of the prior homestead as of January 1 of the year in which the prior homestead was abandoned, the assessed value of the new homestead shall be the just value of the new homestead minus an amount equal to the lesser of $500,000 or the difference between the just value and the assessed value of the prior homestead as of January 1 of the year in which the prior homestead was abandoned. Thereafter, the homestead shall be assessed as provided in this subsection.

2. If the just value of the new homestead is less than the just value of the prior homestead as of January 1 of the year in which the prior homestead was abandoned, the assessed value of the new homestead shall be equal to the just value of the new homestead divided by the just value of the prior homestead and multiplied by the assessed value of the prior homestead.

However, if the difference between the just value of the new

183 homestead and the assessed value of the new homestead calculated 184 pursuant to this sub-subparagraph is greater than $500,000, the 185 assessed value of the new homestead shall be increased so that 186 the difference between the just value and the assessed value 187 equals $500,000. Thereafter, the homestead shall be assessed as 188 provided in this subsection.

189 b. By general law and subject to conditions specified 190 therein, the legislature shall provide for application of this 191 paragraph to property owned by more than one person.

192 (e) The legislature may, by general law, for assessment 193 purposes and subject to the provisions of this subsection, allow 194 counties and municipalities to authorize by ordinance that 195 historic property may be assessed solely on the basis of 196 character or use. Such character or use assessment shall apply 197 only to the jurisdiction adopting the ordinance. The 198 requirements for eligible properties must be specified by 199 general law.

200 (f) A county may, in the manner prescribed by general law,
201 provide for a reduction in the assessed value of homestead 202 property to the extent of any increase in the assessed value of 203 that property which results from the construction or 204 reconstruction of the property for the purpose of providing 205 living quarters for one or more natural or adoptive grandparents
206 or parents of the owner of the property or of the owner's spouse 207 if at least one of the grandparents or parents for whom the 208 living quarters are provided is 62 years of age or older. Such a reduction may not exceed the lesser of the following:

(1) The increase in assessed value resulting from construction or reconstruction of the property.

(2) Twenty percent of the total assessed value of the property as improved.

(g) For all levies other than school district levies, assessments of residential real property, as defined by general law, which contains nine units or fewer and which is not subject to the assessment limitations set forth in subsections (a) through (d) shall change only as provided in this subsection.

(1) Assessments subject to this subsection shall be changed annually on the date of assessment provided by law; but those changes in assessments shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the assessment for the prior year.

(2) No assessment shall exceed just value.

(3) After a change of ownership or control, as defined by general law, including any change of ownership of a legal entity that owns the property, such property shall be assessed at just value as of the next assessment date. Thereafter, such property shall be assessed as provided in this subsection.

(4) Changes, additions, reductions, or improvements to such property shall be assessed as provided for by general law; however, after the adjustment for any change, addition, reduction, or improvement, the property shall be assessed as provided in this subsection.

(1) Assessments subject to this subsection shall be changed annually on the date of assessment provided by law; but those changes in assessments shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the assessment for the prior year.

(2) No assessment shall exceed just value.

(3) The legislature must provide that such property shall be assessed at just value as of the next assessment date after a qualifying improvement, as defined by general law, is made to such property. Thereafter, such property shall be assessed as provided in this subsection.

(4) The legislature may provide that such property shall be assessed at just value as of the next assessment date after a change of ownership or control, as defined by general law, including any change of ownership of the legal entity that owns the property. Thereafter, such property shall be assessed as provided in this subsection.

(5) Changes, additions, reductions, or improvements to such property shall be assessed as provided for by general law; however, after the adjustment for any change, addition, reduction, or improvement, the property shall be assessed as provided in this subsection.

the following in the determination of the assessed value of real property ~~used for residential purposes:~~

(1) Any change or improvement to real property used for residential purposes made to improve ~~for the purpose of improving~~ the property's resistance to wind damage.

(2) The installation of a solar or renewable energy source device.

(j)(1) The assessment of the following working waterfront properties shall be based upon the current use of the property:

a. Land used predominantly for commercial fishing purposes.

b. Land that is accessible to the public and used for vessel launches into waters that are navigable.

c. Marinas and drystacks that are open to the public.

d. Water-dependent marine manufacturing facilities, commercial fishing facilities, and marine vessel construction and repair facilities and their support activities.

(2) The assessment benefit provided by this subsection is subject to conditions and limitations and reasonable definitions as specified by the legislature by general law.
