

WHEREAS, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights recognizes the inherent dignity and equal and unalienable rights of all members of the human family as the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world.

WHEREAS, the sacrifices made by those women who marched before to secure equal representation were rewarded by the certification of the 19th amendment.

WHEREAS, we come together today and everyday as One Human Family to protect our constitutional right and pledge to continue to fight for equality for all citizens.

WHEREAS, On January 21, 2017, the citizens of Key West will support the Women's March on Washington to have our voices heard and recognized by elected officials at local, state and Federal Government.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, Jimmy Weekley, District I Commissioner, Sam Kaufman, District II Commissioner, Richard Payne, District IV Commissioner, of the City of Key West, do hereby proclaim
January 21, 2017

Women's March on Duval Day

IN SUPPORT OF THE WOMEN'S MARCH ON WASHINGTON

in the "Southernmost City of the Continental United States", I would like to urge all citizens, residents and visitors of the Southernmost City to participate fittingly in this observation.

WITNESS my hand and seal of the City of Key West, Florida, this 4th of January, 2017.

Clayton Lopez, Vice-Mayor

Jimmy Weekley, District I

Richard Payne, District IV

Sam Kaufman, District II