NARRATIVE

REPORTING OFFICER NARRATIVEKey West Police Department*

Victim OCEAN KEY HOUSE		Offense THEFT OTHER	OCA 17-005535
			Date / Time Reported Fri 11/10/2017 16:31

On 11/10/17 I was dispatched to the Ocean Key House (0 Duval Street) in reference to a diner refusing to pay his bill at the restaurant. Upon arrival, I met with Danny Rogers, Manager Ocean Key House. Mr. Rogers informed me a patron, later identified by his Nevada driver license as Sean Crow (Defendant), at the restaurant was refusing to pay his bill. Mr. Rogers showed me the receipt from the restaurant which showed a bill of $127.13. Mr. Rogers informed me the Defendant had 2 bills at the restaurant one for the bar, and one for table service. The Defendant paid one bill but refused to pay the other bill. The Defendant was standing by the service areas and I explained that he would have to pay the second bill. The Defendant refused to pay stating he already paid the bill. The Defendant had a strong smell of an alcoholic beverage on him. I explained again that he would have to pay the bill, or I would have to arrest him for the theft. The Defendant again refused to pay the bill. I went to grab the Defendant's wrist and he pulled away from me and told me to wait. I was under the impression at that time he was going to pay the bill, but he again was stalling me on paying the bill. I attempted to place the Defendant's wrists behind him to handcuff him and he pulled away from me. I threatened to taser the Defendant, but due to the limited space in which we were occupying I decided to attempt to cuff him. The Defendant resisted me again by pulling away from my grasp on his wrist. At this point I took the Defendant to the ground in a controlled manner and handcuffed him and double locked them. I contacted my supervisor, and asked for Key West Rescue for the Defendant who had some bleeding coming from his nose. Rescue cleared the Defendant and he was transported to 800 Emma by Sgt. Blasberg. At 800 Emma the Defendant was transferred to my patrol car. The Defendant complained about his handcuffs being too tight and they were adjusted prior to being placed in my patrol car. The Defendant was transported to Monroe County Jail and he continued to complain about the cuffs. I informed him that they were set at the largest diameter and there was nothing further that could be done. The Defendant stopped complaining about them after they were removed at the jail.

On 10NOV17, I was requested by Ofc. Standerwick, to respond to his location at 0 Duval St. Ofc. Standerwick advised, over police channel 1, he had a suspect in custody and needed a supervisor for a response to resistance report. I arrived shortly afterwards.

Upon arrival I saw Ofc. Standerwick and his arrestee by the dock area of the resort. I noticed the suspect (later identified by his Nevada DL) had a bloody nose and was seated on a bench. Ofc. Standerwick was standing next to him and had summoned KWFD to attend to the suspect's injury. Ofc. Standerwick informed what had happened and what he did to place the suspect under arrest. The Suspect, who had an odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person/breath, kept saying, "What's going on?" I then began taking pictures of the suspect's injury prior to KWFD's arrival.

Since Ofc. Standerwick was on his assigned bicycle, I transported the suspect to 800 Emma St. where Ofc. Standerwick's assigned patrol car was located. During the transport my Coban was activated and recorded the event. Once at 800 Emma St. the suspect was turned back over to Ofc. Standerwick's custody and was shortly after transported to MCDC by Ofc. Standerwick.

I gathered information on the case and completed both a supplemental report and a Response to Resistance incident. See initial report for further information
