

Sustainability Report
March 2018

Bloomberg Grant: Coordinated 4 meetings with stakeholders towards potential $1.5M award.
Still need additional meetings with Keys Energy and Navy.

Adaptation: Introduced, coordinated and submitted 46 applications across 7 departments for city wide Hazard Mitigation monies due Wed, 2/28. Now gathering data for Step 2 applications, due 3/14

Transportation:

Set last two meetings for Bike Ped Master Plan Advisory: Fri, March 16 2:30-4:30pm, and Thurs, April 26th from 11:30-12:30

Set public workshop for Bike Ped Master Plan: Thurs, April 26, 6-7:30pm

South Florida Commuter Services contract with FDOT not renewed, awaiting contact info for newly chosen group.

Worked with partners to set draft agenda for US1 Commuter Workshop (3/20)

This Sunday is Artisans Market Bike Day, 10am-2pm.

Multimodal Transportation Coordinator set for City Commission, 3/20

Coordinated Bike Rack dual order. Will submit shortly.

Green Business:

Awarded Green Business Certification to La Creperie. Press Release soon to come. Commendation at City Commission mtg: March 20.

Met with Green Drinks team to plan Kick off on March 21st. Green Business focused.

1st Green eNews in 9 months went out March 8th.

SAB Meeting set for 3/15, 3:30pm

Set up PACE presentation for Florida Keys Contractors Association, March 15

USGBC Workshop on Tiny Houses and Cisterns: 3/12, 10am-1pm.

Commendation of 1st Green Business: City Commission 2/20

Set subject matter for next 2 Green Drinks meetings with businesses (3/21: Straws, 4/18: Green To Go)

Awaiting NEA Grant RFP from AIPP Coordinator.

Completed LEED Educational posters for City Hall

Alison Higgins

Sustainability Coordinator

City of Key West

ahiggins@cityofkeywest-fl.gov