

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, change is constant and affects all cities, towns, suburbs, counties, boroughs, townships, rural areas, and other places; and community planning and planners can help manage this change in a way that provides better choices for how people work, live, and play; and

WHEREAS, community planning provides an opportunity for all residents to be equally involved in making choices that determine the shared-vision of their neighborhoods; and the full benefits of planning require public officials and citizens who understand, support, and demand excellence in planning and plan implementation; and

WHEREAS, the month of October is designated as National Community Planning month throughout the United States of America and its territories; and The American Planning Association and its professional institute, the American Institute of Certified Planners, endorse National Community Planning Month as an opportunity to highlight the contributions that sound planning and plan implementation make to the quality of our neighborhoods and environment; and

WHEREAS, the celebration of National Community Planning Month gives us the opportunity to publicly recognize the participation and dedication of the members of planning boards and other citizen planners who have contributed their time and expertise to the improvement of the City of Key West; and we recognize the many valuable contributions made by professional community and regional planners of the City of Key West and extend our heartfelt thanks for the continued commitment to public service by these professionals;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Teri Johnston, Mayor of the City of Key West, do hereby proclaim the month of October as

COMMUNITY PLANNING MONTH

WITNESS my hand and seal of the City of Key West, Florida, this 2nd day of October 2019.
