Re: Public Input for variance request at 13 Hilton Haven

RE# 00001870-0000

After reading both the variance request and the city response to date, as well as viewing the property; I want to support passage of this variance request so that a residence can be permitted and built. The entire street is built up residential so that the building of this modest residence will not impact the neighborhood nor area.

Sincerely,

Pernell O Larsen

1305 Reynolds St

Key West
