--------------------------	--	--

On Monday, January 25, 2021, at approximately 1956 hours, Ofc. J. Deese, Ofc. R. Perez and I, Ofc. Ane, were dispatched to Porter Place Apartments apt. #3D, located at 301 White Street, in reference to a wanted person. KWPD Dispatch advised the wanted person was Darrian Knowles. I know Knowles from numerous prior law enforcement encounters.

Upon arrival, I instructed Ofc. R. Perez to go to the rear of the residence, as in my experience Knowles was likely to flee upon contact. I knocked on the door of apartment 3D, while Ofc. Deese stood approximately 10-15 feet behind me to keep watch on the up stairs apartment that overlooked our location. As soon as I knocked on the door, Ofc. J. Deese advised she saw Knowles looking out of the window in the upstairs apartment.

A female, Danielle Edwards, opened the door. I told her I knew Knowles was upstairs and he had warrants for his arrest. Edwards was cooperative and allowed officers to recover Knowles. I went upstairs to the bedroom Ofc. Deese saw Knowles in. I knocked on the door, announced myself as a Key West Police Officer and told Knowles to come out. There was no response from Knowles. I tried to open the door by turning the door knob, however, the door was locked. I again told Knowles to exit the room, or I would have to kick the door open. Knowles continued to ignore my commands.

I opened the door by delivering a front kick to the locking mechanism. Knowles was standing inside of the doorway. I immediately gave Knowles several loud verbal commands to get on the ground. Knowles began to step towards me with his hands raised, but refused to lay down. I reached out to Knowles' shoulder to direct him to the ground and he immediately tensed his body. Knowles began to push towards me, so I pushed towards him, causing him to fall back into a bed that was behind him. Knowles began to stand, when I conducted a modified leg-sweep that redirected him to the ground. Once on the ground, a struggle ensued, as Knowles tensed his arm and refused to turn over. Ofc. Deese and I fought with Knowles to place his arms behind his back. While Knowles was on his stomach he began to deliver "Headbutt" strikes to Ofc. Deese's legs and ankles. Ofc. Deese gave several commands to Knowles for him to stop headbutting her. Ofc. Deese was able to place Knowles' left arm behind his back, while I placed his right arm behind his back. Knowles then locked his hands together in an attempt to keep me from handcuffing him. I had to pry Knowles' hands apart using joint manipulation to place him in handcuffs.

Once in handcuffs, Knowle's behavior only became more violent and aggressive. I placed Knowles on his side until Ofc. R. Perez came upstairs to help us with bringing Knowles down the narrow and steep staircase.

I called for a supervisor and Sgt. A. Rodriguez arrived on scene to document my response to resistance. Once Sgt. A. Rodriguez was finished with his documentation, Ofc. R. Perez and I walked Knowles out to my patrol vehicle.

I sat Knowles on the rear seat. He sat with both legs out of the vehicle. I asked him three times to place his legs in the vehicle, before having to physically pick his legs up and place them in the vehicle.

I transported to Knowles to MCDC without further incident.

Darrian Knowles had three active warrants for Violation of Probation. Darrian Knowles is also being charged with one count of resisting arrest with violence, in accordance to FSS. 843.01.

This investigation was recorded via my department issued body worn camera, which I later uploaded to evidence.com.
