RE: Variance Application 417 Simonton Street, Key West, Florida 33040 Property ID# - 00006330-000000

Dear Mr. Singelyn,

My firm represents 417 Simonton Street, LLC, a Florida limited liability company (the "Applicant"), for a variance application at 417 Simonton Street, Key West, Florida 33040 (the "Property") located in the Historic Neighborhood Commercial ("HNC-1") zoning district. Pursuant to code Sec. 90-391, this variance request is made to allow the demolition of the existing, legally non-conforming second residential dwelling unit located at the rear of the Property, with replacement of a new structure within the Property lines. Specifically, this application requests a variance to code Section 122-810(6) with regard to the required side and rear setback for primary structures.

As the attached site plan and survey will show, the existing structure is currently encroaching onto the neighboring lot. The Applicant is proposing a new one-story structure which will be brought onto the subject Property, improving upon the legal nonconformities in the process. This relocation will create a side and rear setback where none exists today on that portion of the site. Due to the physical constraints of the Property, the rebuilding of the residential structure does not allow full compliance with required setbacks, therefore, the new residence will have a footprint 147 sq. ft. smaller than the existing.

The new design will provide additional ceiling height than the current shed roof. This additional vertical space and loft area is non-habitable and will be used as storage area for the small home. Therefore, although the location and three-dimensional envelope will change, this results in a smaller footprint and much improved site conditions.

If approved, the minimal variance would be granted leaving a much smaller footprint of the reconstructed unit which decreases building coverage and impervious surface, increases open space, improves rear and side setbacks, and eliminates the encroachment onto the adjacent property.

	CODE REQUIREMENT	EXISTING	PROPOSED	VARIANCE REQUIRED
Lot Size	4,000 sq. ft.	4,422 sq. ft.	4,422 sq. ft.	No
Lot Width (ft.)	40	44	44	No
Lot Depth (ft.)	100	100.5	100.5	No
Max Building Coverage	2,211 sq. ft. (50%)	2,023sq. ft. (45.7%)	1,859 sq. ft. (42%)	No
Max Impervious	2,653 sq. ft. (60%)	2,610 sq. ft. (59%)	2,446 sq. ft. (55%)	No
Min. Open Space	1,548 sq. ft. (35%)	1,812 sq. ft. (40%)	1,976 sq. ft. (43.9%)	No
Max Height (new structure)	35'-0"	10'-11 1/2"	18'-6"	No
Setbacks:
Front	5'	10'-11"	10'-11"	No
Rear	15'	0'-0"	2'-6"	Yes
North Side	5'	0'-6"	0'-6"	Existing nonconformity
South Side	5'	0'-0''	1'-6"	Yes

In support of the request, the Applicant states as follows:

- 1. Existence of special conditions or circumstances. Special-- conditions and circumstances exist which are peculiar to the land, structure or building involved and which are not applicable to other land, structures, or buildings in the same zoning district.
  - a. Special conditions exist. This particular lot houses two residential dwelling units, which are permitted within the HNC-1 zoning district. The front house is a large two-story contributing conch house which occupies a large percentage of the lot, leaving a smaller space for the second unit. The second unit, and subject of this application, is currently encroaching onto the neighboring lot and this proposal will rectify that issue by creating setbacks where there are currently none. Making these improvements within a confined space does not allow for reasonable habitable space to meet the requirements of the LDRs.
- 2. Conditions not created by applicant. That the special conditions and circumstances do not result from the action or negligence of the applicant.
  - a. The existing structure is currently noncompliant at the rear and South side setback. This is a condition that has existed for a long time and was not created by the applicant. The Applicant seeks to improve these conditions by eliminating the encroachment onto the neighboring property and providing setbacks in areas where none exist today.

- 3. Special privileges not conferred. That granting the variance requested will not confer upon the applicant any special privileges denied by the land development regulations to other lands, buildings or structures in the same zoning district.
  - a. Special privileges are not conferred. This is a great example of why the LDRs permit variances for noncomplying lots and structures and allow them to make improvements towards compliance. There are also provisions in the LDRs that allow for reconstruction of residential dwelling units that improve nonconformities without the need for a variance under certain circumstances.
- 4. Hardship conditions exist. That literal interpretation of the provisions of the land development regulations would deprive the applicant of rights commonly enjoyed by other properties in this same zoning district under the terms of this ordinance and would work unnecessary and undue hardship on the applicant.
  - a. The hardship for this request is the inability to meet the requirements of the LDRs while maintaining a reasonable amount of habitable space. There is not ample space on this lot for reconstructing within the identical three-dimensional envelope and meet the required setbacks. However, setback compliance aside, if there were flexibility in the three-dimensional envelope, then this could meet that portion of the LDRs. Although compliance to rear and side setbacks would not be possible, they would be greatly improved and the encroachment eliminated. The alternative would mean deciding between keeping the existing structure, which encroaches on neighboring properties, or losing the second unit altogether.
- 5. Only minimum variance granted. That the variance granted is the minimum variance that will make possible the reasonable use of the land, building, or structure.
  - a. Yes, if approved, the minimal variance would be granted leaving a much smaller footprint of a structure which decreases building coverage and impervious surface, increases open space, improves rear and side setbacks, and eliminates the encroachment onto the adjacent property.
- 6. Not injurious to the public welfare. That granting of the variance will be in harmony with the general intent and purpose of the land development regulations and that such variances will not be injurious to the area involved or otherwise detrimental to the public interest or welfare.
  - a. The granting of the variance is not injurious to the area involved or detrimental to the public interest. The variance will eliminate the encroachment onto the neighboring property and improve setbacks which increases public safety.
- 7. Existing nonconforming uses of other property shall not be considered as the basis for approval. That no other nonconforming uses of neighboring lands, structures, or buildings in the same district and that no other permitted use of lands, structures or buildings in other districts shall be considered grounds for the issuance of a variance.

a. The Applicant did not consider other nonconforming uses of other property in developing this application.

If you should have any questions, comments, or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Richard J. McChesney, Esq.
