

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Comcast Cares Day 2011 marks a decade of Comcast Cares Day and will draw together more than 60,000 Comcast employees and family members to participate in volunteer projects in hundreds of communities around the country; and

WHEREAS, this event provides Comcast employees an organized opportunity to volunteer over 300,000 hours in a single day which benefits the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, over the last ten years more than 230,000 Comcast volunteers have donated 1.7 million hours of service on nearly 3000 projects in 39 states and Washington D.C.; and

WHEREAS, this year, Comcast employees nationwide will make a difference by rolling up their sleeves and work on a variety of projects which include installing computers, cleaning, painting, donating to food banks, landscaping, Relay For Life and more; and

WHEREAS, this year, over 50 Comcast employees and their families from Key West to Key Largo will be installing an internet café, cleaning and painting for the Boys and Girls Club located in Bay View Park on Saturday, April 30, 2011.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Craig Cates, Mayor of the City of Key West, do hereby proclaim April 30, 2011 as

Comcast Cares Day

in the "Southernmost City of the Continental United States" I would like to urge all citizens, residents and visitors of our Southernmost City to participate fittingly in the observation.

WITNESS my hand and seal of the City of Key West, Florida, this 5th day of April 2011.

Craig Cates, MAYOR