

RESUME
BRYAN GREEN

Born: August 14th 1949

Qualifications; MA, PhD (Cambridge)

Memberships: Royal Institute of British Architects, Fellow
Royal Society of Designers

Awards: Lieutenant Royal Victorian Order,

EMPLOYMENT

Chartered Architect now owning GML Group Limited, a holding company for 5 separate firms of Architects and Designers based in London, Galway, Belfast and Dublin.

Responsible for a wide range of public and private sector projects ranging in size and location from One Park Plaza, Chicago (now known as Smurfit Stone Building), Heathrow Terminals 3 and 4, Bath Western Riverside,, Clarence Hotel Dublin, Town Center Macon Loche France, Shopping Centers in Paris, Dublin, London, Glasgow, Galway.

Now semi retired but remains Chairman of the Board

Advisor to UK Government on the delivery of Affordable Housing policies and author of several papers and reference books on low income housing

VOLUNTARY SECTOR

Prior to relocating to Key West in 2000 Bryan Green sat on numerous national and local Trusts and Boards including

War on Want (Third World Relief Agency)
AddAction (Drug Education and Rehabilitation agency)
Cripplegate Foundation (Direct Grant giving trust)
City Roads Crisis Intervention (Drug Detox Hostel)
Price of Wales Trust

In Key West

Chair Citizens Review Board
Chair The Founders Society
Chair Tennessee Williams Theater - Performing Arts Center of Key West (PACKW)
Board Community Foundation of the Florida Keys
Associate Board Wesley House
Director Key West Business Guild