Staff Report for Item 9

To: Chairman Bryan Green and Historic Architectural Review
Commission Members

From: Enid Torregrosa, MSHP
Historic Preservation Planner

Meeting Date: May 23, 2017

Applicant: One Call Construction, Contractor

Application Number: H15-01-1528

Address: #1301 Whitehead Street

Review of this project is under the old guidelines for additions, alterations, and new construction, as the Commission postponed the item on the February 23, 2016 meeting.

Description of Work:

New rear additions with deck on the roof. Relocate and elevate accessory structure and enclose front portion. New side entry roof and new railings on existing porches. New steps and site work including partial site regrading. Enclosure of second floor existing rear side north porch.

Site Facts:

The building under review, build circa 1912, is a contributing resource to the historic district. The building is located on the south corner of Whitehead and United Streets. The two-story frame structure has a one story front porch that wraps towards United Street, accentuating its corner setting. The house has dense vegetation, particularly towards Whitehead Street. The house sits on concrete piers and its first story finish floor is elevated approximately 2'-3/4" from grade.

By reviewing the Sanborn maps, there is evidence that on the back portion of the house there used to be a 20' tall water tower with a motor. The water tower is not depicted in the 1926 or subsequent Sanborn maps. The existing one-story wrap porch, fronting Whitehead and United Streets is an original feature of the house. Two bay windows are located on the first floor, each facing a street. The backside portion of the house also used to have a porch facing United Street. The southern back portion of the house has been a two-story structure at least since 1941; aerial photos taken by the Navy in 1941 are evidence of this fact. Currently the second floor addition bumps out from the first floor towards the east elevation.

By comparing the 1962 Sanborn map and the circa 1965 photo with a current survey, we found changes in the footprint of the house, particularly on the back portion of the house. The historic northeast porch, facing United Street, was enclosed with a flush wall to the historic fabric. Other non-historic alterations include a second floor balcony with a roof deck, swimming pool, decks, and wooden fences. The Sanborn maps from 1926, 1948 and 1962 all depict an accessory structure, facing United Street, dedicated to a car. This structure, although altered, remains in the same location. According to the circa 1965 photograph the actual structure was a garage, with a front double door.

Adjacent structures are all residential by design and use, being the ones on its adjacent proximity historic and contributing structures, all two stories and two and a half stories frame structures. Across Whitehead Street, there is the Trumbo Annex Navy residential complex. The owners have stated that on a heavy rain, the entire site gets flooded and they need to protect their home.

Guidelines and Ordinance Cited on Review:

- US Secretary of the Interior's Standards and Guidelines for Rehabilitation (pages 16-23), specifically Standards 1, 2, 4, 9 and 10.
- Roof decks (page 28a), specifically first paragraph, and guideline 1.
- Entrances, porches and doors (pages 32-33), specifically guideline 8, for proposed new entry porch facing United Street.
- Additions, alterations and new construction (pages 36-38a), specifically all guidelines on page 37, and guidelines 1, 4, 5, and 6. For the relocation of the accessory structure guideline 1 page 38, second sentence.
- Outbuildings (page 40-41), specifically guideline 8 of page 40.

Staff Analysis

The Certificate of Appropriateness in review is for a proposed one-story frame addition attached to the southeast portion of a contributing structure. The new addition will have a small roof deck that will be accessible from a second floor master bedroom. The design also includes the expansion in footprint of the northwest portion of the house, which is the latest addition to the house. The proposed changes to the northeast includes the enclosure of the second floor porch, having the wall that will face United Street been setback 6" from the north wall of the main house. Nevertheless, the plans depict an increase of the footprint towards the east portion of the house at both stories; enlarging the existing massing of the non-historic portion of the house. It is evident that the existing second floor porch and its roof deck, which faces United Street, are rudimentary in nature, and they are not appropriate to the historic fabric. The proposed new addition will have two over two wood impact resistance windows and their exterior walls will have wood lap siding. All trims in the new addition will be made of wood.

The design proposes to keep a roof deck with existing not-to-code railings, for which staff has not found any approvals for its construction; staff reviewed aerial photographs and in 1994, a two-story addition towards the northeast corner of the building is visible. Still, staff has questions as to when HARC reviewed and approved the roof-deck. According to the applicant, they are not going to do anything to the existing roof deck nor the railings.

Another component of the design is the relocation of the existing carport. The accessory structure is proposed to be moved 5 feet from the street side property line and 8 feet from the rear property boundary. As previously mentioned, portions of the existing carport, are still historic; the front gable and columns are not original to the structure. The plan depicts a small increase in height for the accessory structure, through elevating its foundations. The structure will not be a garage.

The design also includes a new pool deck, re-grading of the lot, a new entry porch with a door on the rear addition, and facing United Street. The proposed entry porch roof seems out of scale and proportions with the existing side elevation, and it reads as prominent as character defining elements in the north façade, like a bay window and the wrap porch.

On March 28, 2017, the Commission approved for staff to review the proposed elevation of the building, up to 4'- 8" at finished floor, due to flood issues. As part of the Commission's motion on that specific meeting was for staff to approve site regarding related to the increase in height of the footings. This was a motion approved as a request from the owner of the house that urged the Commission to consider this specific issue. Still, in conversations with staff after the meeting the owner explained that elevating the house at this point without approvals of any additions did not work for him.

Consistency with Guidelines

It is staff's opinion that the project fails many of the cited guidelines as well as the US Secretary of the Interior Standards and Guidelines. Staff opines that the actual second floor porch that faces United Street negatively affects the symmetry and proportions of the historic building; the proposed enclosure and expansion will create a volume that does not protect the integrity of the property and its environment. As mentioned by the owner in the last meeting, this portion of the house is an eyesore; expanding it and making it a volume attached to the historic house will perpetuate and accentuate a non-sensible addition.

Staff finds that the relocation of the accessory structure and its renovation by enclosing the front portion and adding a pair of doors will bring back the structure to a similar historic configuration. The structure is an important element to the site even though the front portion is altered. The garage was not original to the site but is historic as the 1926 Sanborn maps depict it for the first time. The design promotes the preservation of the form and character of the accessory structure.

The proposed gable entry roof facing United Street detracts from character defining elements such as the bay window and wrap porch that faces the street, location, proportions, and form are incompatible with those elements.
