Additional Information

The Division of State Purchasing informs customers that the alternate contract source for Computer Equipment, Peripherals, and Services (43211500-WSCA-15-ACS) will expire on October 31, 2023. Any purchase orders issued under the expiring alternate contract source on or before October 31, 2023, may be used up to twelve months after the contract expiration date.

The division intends to replace the expiring alternate contract source with a new alternate contract source on or before October 31, 2023. The division recommends that customers issue purchase orders prior to the current contract expiration date to address any immediate purchasing needs. If for some reason this purchasing process does not meet your agency's needs, the division will be available to process agency alternate contract source requests using the Agency Request for Approval of Alternate Contract Source (ACS) (PUR 7102). A service update will be posted when additional information regarding the new alternate contract source is available.
