-- William E Rositzke Arrest Narrative:

On 02/27/2027 at approximately 0010 Hours, while conducting a foot patrol of the 200 block of Duval St. I was flagged down in regard to a disturbance located in 211 Duval St. Irish Kevin's bar.

Upon my arrival, I was pointed to the center of the bar where I observed a male later identified as Rositzke, William E. A white male, born on 04/13/1969 trying to push through a crowd of people. I approached and told them to calm down, and that it was time to leave. Several crowd members began telling me "It's ok, it's ok we are taking him home." Rositzke continued to push through the crowd, I placed my hand on the back of his neck and told him "Enough, it's time to go". He shrugged and pulled away from me. I then grabbed the back of Rositzke's shirt and pulled him, telling him it was time to go. Rositzke then turned towards saying "You're about to get punched in the face." Rositzke then grabbed my vest with force. At this point, I grabbed Rositzke's arm, using an arm bar technique I assisted him to the ground in a controlled descent. He continued to attempt to pull away but was unable to do so. I then rolled him to his stomach where I secured his hands behind his back, I placed him into handcuffs which were checked for proper fit and double locked. He was then placed into my patrol vehicle while I continued my investigation. It should be noted that I was in full uniform on duty and announced myself as a police officer when making contact with Rositzke.

At this point I made contact with the bar security officer O'Connor, Jonathan a white male, born on 12/01/2004 who stated the following. A female later identified as Hollyday, Emily C a white female, born on 12/21/1969 was being disruptive near the stage with tambourines. When O'Connor approached and asked her to stop, she gave an incoherent response. O'Connor then asked her if the tambourines belonged to her, to which she didn't respond, He asked again and again she didn't respond. She was then told she needed to leave and turn over the tambourines if they belonged to the band, she again didn't respond to the statement. O'Conner then grabbed the tambourines and tried to escort her from the building. Hollyday then begins to push O'Conner in an effort to get away.

At this point, the other members of the party got involved saying that they would take her and leave. That is when Rositzke decided that he was not ready to leave and tried to go back to the bar. That's when they flagged me down to assist in removing the party from the establishment.

Based on the facts and evidence, I believe there is probable cause that on 02/27/2025, William E. Rositzke did knowingly and intentionally violated F.S.S. 877.0 Disorderly Conduct as read in F.S.S. 509.143 Disorderly Conduct on the premises of an establishment, by actually and purposefully placing patrons of the business in fear by acting erratically and screaming profanities, causing them to flee the business and refusing to leave even after being asked to leave multiple times.

Subsequently, William E. Rositzke was also found in violation of the following Florida State Statutes F.S.S. 784.07-2B BATTERY ON LEO / FIREFIGHTER / EMT RECLASSIFIED, and F.S.S. 843.01 RESIST / OBSTRUCT OFFICER WITH VIOLENCE.

Sgt. C. Williams was notified of the Use of Force and responded to the scene to conduct her investigation. It should be noted that Rositzke had no visible injuries nor did he complain of being injured.

Rositzke was transported to the Monroe County Jail where he was transferred for booking.

My BWC and Fleet Axon recording devices were active for both the arrest and transport.

At the conclusion of the investigation once Hollyday was informed that Rositzke was being arrested she stated that if he was going to jail, she wished to press charges against the bar and the doormen for battering her by trying to remove her from the establishment. At this time no charges have been filed.

On 2/27/2025 at 00:10 hours I responded to Irish Kevins (211-C Duval St) after being flagged down.

Ofc. Christina, Ofc. Torrecillas, and I walked into Irish Kevins to a verbal disturbance. Ofc. Christina, Ofc. Torrecillas, and I approached the group yelling at one another.

As I approached the group, I noticed William E. Rositzke attempted to push Ofc. Christina and grabbed him. Ofc. Christina then redirected William to the ground in attempt to gain compliance. William was then handcuffed and Ofc. Christina and I escorted to Ofc. Christina's patrol vehicle.

I assisted in the search of William prior to placing him in Ofc. Christina's patrol vehicle.

Nothing further.

After being flagged down, I, along with Officers Christiina and Sonnichsen, walked into Irish Kevin's.

As I walked in, I saw a male, later identified as William Rositzke, being restrained by another male. The male kept holding Rositske back as Rositske continued to try and push past him in an aggressive manner. Ofc. Christina grabbed Rositzke and I saw a bartender attempting to get my attention. As I turned my attention to the bartender, I was pushed into the bar as Ofc. Christina redirected Rositzke to the ground.

I walked around Ofc. Christina and assisted him with handcuffing Rositzke. I grabbed Rositzke's left arm and pulled it out from underneath his body. I held Rositzke's arm to his back as Ofc. Christina handcuffed him.

My BWC was activated and uploaded to evidence.com.
