1. What aspect of your life and/or work experience has prepared you for membership on the CRB? (You may attach up to a one-page response.) In life there are many tough choices that must be made. In dealing with people in conflict in both the public and private sector requires the art of listening. My ten years of dealing with the traveling public I have learned to listen and make tough choices. My listening and analytical thinking skills and willingness to deal with difficult issues will make me a valuable asset to the CRB.
2. Why do you wish to serve on the CRB? (You may attach up to a one-page response.) I believe in what the CRB stands for and represents. I have been a member of this community for about eight years and have decided to make it my home. I wish to contribute to the community I live in and help make it a better place.
