Rich Rettig, the co-owner of the Key West At Its Best properties, grew up in New England and graduated from Franklin Pierce College. He was a hands-on owner of The Benjamin Prescott Inn, a Bed and Breakfast in Jaffrey, NH and enjoyed the hospitality of welcoming guests. After moving to Key West in 1991, he began to explore the area and acquire the 7 properties he now offers to guests of the Island. Your enjoyment is always priority one and your comments and suggestions are welcome.

Rich Rettig

Kerry Whitworth, is co-owner (the nice one that has to do everything) of the Key West At Its Best properties. Kerry grew up in Texas and is a graduate of Texas Tech University. In 1989, after far too many years in the computer industry, he began a one year sabbatical from the pressures and conflicts of corporate goals. The sabbatical continues today. After moving to Key West, it is doubtful that the corporate world will see him again! When not welcoming guests to "Paradise", he may be found welcoming guests aboard flights, as a flight attendant for a major airline. Kerry certainly understands the stress of a career and the challenges that travel can present. His goal today is to help you maximize your relaxation and your pleasure as you experience our island hospitality during your well deserved time "away from it all". Email us and he can respond no matter where he is!

Have a great time!
