

COMMENDATION

It is with great pride that the City of Key West shall honor Jordan Mannix-Lachner as the winner of the Key West High School Academic Achievement Award. Jordan is a well-rounded student who loves to learn and be involved. She maintains a weighted GPA of 4.3 in her advanced high school curriculum while immersing herself in extracurricular activities and volunteer work. Studious, engaged and passionate about the world, Jordan is an active member and officer of multiple clubs at KWHS and volunteers her time for local organizations like Green Living and Energy Education (GLEE) and Fair Insurance Rates in Monroe (FIRM), as well as with national organizations such as the Appalachian Trail Conservancy. Unafraid to express her opinions, Jordan is described as a great writer who is funny, sharp and respectful. She is the current Editor-In-Chief of KWHS's newspaper, The Snapper. With her thirst for knowledge and her desire to make a difference in the lives of the less fortunate, Jordan looks forward to exploring the world and studying communications in college. The City of Key West is honored to have a student of such caliber and dedication as part of our community.

In recognition of this honor, the City of Key West hereby presents this Commendation to:

JORDAN MANNIX-LACHNER

WITNESS my hand and seal of the City of Key West, Florida, this 16th day of October, 2012.

Craig Cates, MAYOR
