

DAUGHTERS TO UNVEIL MEMORIAL AT KEY WEST

Ceremonies in Honor of Confederate Dead to Take Place Jan. 19

(Special to Miami News-Metropolis)

KEY West, Jan. 7.—Members of Stephen R. Mallory chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, at a meeting Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. John W. Hatrick, decided that the exercises, attending the unveiling of the memorial arch, recently erected in Bay View Park by the chapter, to the memory of the confederate dead be held Jan. 19, which is the anniversary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee.

The memorial arch will carry plates bearing the names of the men of the confederacy who are buried in this city. These plates have been ordered from the Clark Marble Co. of Jacksonville.

The chapter will issue invitations to the 40 chapters in this state, also to 12 chapters of the Children of the Confederacy, 12 in Florida, to participate at the unveiling. Invitations will also be sent to 13 state officers of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, to 15 honorary presidents of the state organization, to two former presidents of the local chapter, and to the president who organized the chapter. Distinguished visitors expected to attend the ceremonies are Mrs. Amos Norris of Tampa, Mrs. Frank Terry of Pensacola and Sister Carlotta, president of the St. Augustine chapter.

Invitations will be sent to veterans of the Confederacy in Tampa and Miami, also to the different patriotic societies in this city, which will include the Patriotic Order Sons of America, Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, American Legion and Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion, county, state and city officials, school board and faculty of the Monroe county schools, and other distinguished individuals.

The unveiling of the memorial will be done by four granddaughters of veterans, the Misses Lois Kirkland, Florence Albury, Alphonsine Cleare and Dorothy Cleare.

Their attendants will be four great-granddaughters of veterans, the Misses Mary Louise Spottswood, Florence Sawyer, Mary Delaney and Fanny Siven.

The musical program will be announced at later date. The ceremonies will take place at 4 p m
