

Todd Henry-DeJesus
800 NW 24th Street
Wilton Manors, FL 33311
954-290-5378

EXPERIENCE:

City of Coconut Creek:

Grants and Intergovernmental Projects Manager 2011-present

Planning Projects Coordinator 2004-2011

Managed city-wide grant program (responsible for bringing in an average of $1,000,000 in grants a year for past 6 years)

City liaison with Federal Lobbyists for City legislative issues

City budget review for Capitol Improvement Programs

City liaison to Broward County Metropolitan Planning Organization

Project Manager for various Federal, County, and City projects

Organizer of annual Green Expo and Environmental Advisory Board liaison

Environmental, greenways and transportation planning

Florida DOT Local Agency Program liaison

Liaison to schools, agencies and private organizations for various environmental education projects

Member of Broward County Brownfield Redevelopment Task Force

Engineer (City of Coconut Creek) 2003-2004

Reviewed all development projects for compliance with engineering regulations

Field manager for city construction projects

Supervising Environmental Specialist (New Jersey Pinelands Commission (1993-2003))

Reviewed and approved the following:

Private and public development applications in 1 million acre national reserve

Hazardous waste clean-up applications (NEPA, Superfund, etc.)

Air quality reports and soil analyses

Stormwater management, Engineering and Traffic plan reviews

EDUCATION:

University of Virginia (1993), Environmental Sciences, MS

Thesis Topic – The adsorption of bacteria to mineral surfaces (with direct applications to colloidal transport and contaminant clean-up)

Princeton University (1990) – Geological Engineering, B.S.E.

National Wildlife Habitat Steward

City of Wilton Manors Parks and Recreation Advisory Board