Work History:

Hot Springs Village, Arkansas Property Owners Association (2010 – Present) – Serving as General Manager of a full-service, not-for-profit corporation serving 14,000 residents, occupying 40 square miles and recognized as the largest gated community in the United States; responsible for the delivery of all traditional municipal services in an efficient and cost-effective manner, including oversight of a $30 million annual budget with 230 full time and 500 total employees.

Town of Superior, Colorado (2007 –2010) – Served as Town Manager for a young, upscale, suburban municipality in the Denver metropolitan area, with a population of 14,000; responsibilities include oversight of a $33 million annual operating budget, lean staff and emphasis on providing exceptional community services through third-party vendors and intergovernmental service agreements. Significant accomplishments include expanded service offerings and additional privatization; initiation of comprehensive economic development and code enforcement programs; and implementation of a multi-year budget.

City of Auburn Hills, Michigan (2004 – 2006) – Served as City Manager for a fast-growing suburb of Detroit, with a population of 20,400 and a daytime population of 90,000; supervising 14 departments with 189 full-time personnel and a budget of $69 million. Significant accomplishments included implementation of a multi-faceted economic development program, institution of needed financial management controls and numerous neighborhood preservation and code enforcement initiatives.

City of Clayton, Missouri (1997 – 2003) – Served as City Manager for a progressive, upscale, inner-ring suburb of St. Louis, with a permanent population of 15,900 and a daytime population of 80,000; supervising seven departments with 185 full-time employees and a $30.1 million budget. Significant accomplishments included oversight over the most prolific construction boom in the City's rich history, consisting of more than two million square feet of new commercial development and large scale multi-family dwellings in the central business district, continued reinvestment in high-end residential neighborhoods, and extraordinary institutional expansion; led a regional study of cooperative efforts, centered on three adjacent communities, that resulted in numerous service enhancements and cost efficiencies; enhanced the City's financial position by introducing the first multi-year financial plan, reducing reliance on property tax and the strategic use of debt; helped implement a multi-faceted public art initiative; and built a $20 million, 134,000 square foot, state-of-the-art community recreation center, in cooperation with the local school district.

Village of Streamwood, Illinois (1992 -1997) – Served as Village Manager of a fast-growing, full-service community of 33,600, supervising seven departments with 172 full-time employees and a $27 million budget. Significant accomplishments included implementing a multi-year financial planning process, re-engineering various municipal services and improving employee relations within a heavily-unionized environment.

Village of LaGrange, Illinois (1988 – 1992) – Served as Village Manager of a mature, full-service suburban community of 15,300; accountable for six departments with 96 employees and a budget of $18.2 million. Principle accomplishments included initiating a successful economic development program, upgrading municipal facilities and improving the budgetary and financial management systems.

Town of Normal, Illinois (1984 – 1988) – Served as Assistant City Manager, responsible for Town-wide administration including oversight of seven departments. In addition, assumed responsibility for economic development, community relations, risk management and labor relations.

City of Portage, Michigan (1983-1984) – Served as Assistant to the City Manager; responsible for general management, grant procurement, public information and special projects.

City of South Haven, Michigan (1981-1983) – Served as Director of Community Development; responsible for all economic development and community development activities including central business district revitalization, industrial park development and the administration of various state and federal grant programs.

Western Illinois Regional Council (1978 – 1981) – Served as Manager of Community Services, supervising a staff of seven and responsible for all local government technical assistance activities including planning, grantsmanship and grant implementation.
