

Recommend to the City Commission that all unspent and unencumbered funds relating to the American Legion Project on Emma Street be placed in escrow to that project's benefit but not available for expenditure on that project until such time as the BVRAC recommends and the City Commission concurs that an acceptable project is in development which does not incur additional architectural fees or substantial deviate from the approved plans.