To whom it may concern,

We do not agree with the request of special exception for alcohol sales at this location. When the property originally requested support for the setbacks of the property's expansion, we supported this location, but it never included the intent to sell alcohol at the time. The original Rancho Motel was a family Hotel and operated without the need to sell alcoholic beverages, as is this location. If with this locations expansion the intent was to request this permit, we would never had agreed to the setbacks. The proximity to my church St. Mary's (which we are a member of its congregation), St. Mary's School and the families with children that live in this area including our property, I do not agree to increase the number of locations to sell alcohol to the public. There is sufficient establishments set up already in the close proximity, that we do not feel a need for another establishment to sell alcohol. I also feel that it will change the neighborhood family feeling this location has historically had.

Thank you,

Emelia Fernandez
Irene Fernandez

Key West, FL 33040

To whom it may concern,

Ashish Soni of the Silver Palms Hotel called to ask me if I, as Pastor of this Parish, would have any issue with the Hotel serving liquor given the proximity to the Basilica and to Church and School property. It was kind of him to call.

Ashish Soni is a good neighbor and is providing a good service in his hotel. I am unopposed to their application for a special sales exemption and wish them well in their business endeavors.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "John C. Baker".

Rev. John C. Baker
Pastor
