Karen, Here are the photos of the Gumbo Limbo lifting the pavers. This tree was planted around 10 years ago and was planted in the wrong place on the property line it has destroyed the fence and is causing major issues with neighboring driveway. The owner is will to fully mitigate it to finish closing off the yard with the new fence

Permit will be turned in within the hour. They are really needing this to be on the May agenda so they can finalize the fence in that area and make repairs to the neighbors driveway

Respectively

John Cole
