

WHEREAS, The Key West Conchs All-Star Team played in the annual 2013 Orange Bowl Championship and they won the First Round game against a much bigger team, Dick Conley All Star team; and

WHEREAS, they won the Championship Game against Palm Beach All Star team in a dramatic no-time-left-on-the clock fumble recovery run back of over 100 yards; and

WHEREAS, This is the first Orange Bowl Championship in ANY age group in the history of Key West Jr. Football League and an undersized team representing CONCH PRIDE demonstrated the Conch characteristics of determination, courage and resiliency and we as a community are extremely proud of this team and recognize that sports program are an integral part of developing characters in our youth who will inherit our city; and

WHEREAS, as a community we want to duly recognize: Deangelo Rivas, Jon Greer, Alvin Howard, Michael Willet, Richie Lorman, Neal Kennedy, Brayden DiMarino, Christian McCain, Donovan Mompoin, Benny Cassis, Dario Sagastume, Matthew Age, Randy Culmer, Peter Estevez, Andre Campos, Tyler Campos, Ty Torres, Coach Brown, Coach Mike Pierce, Coach Paul Davis, Coach Gerald Portier, Coach Scott Estevez and Head Coach Willie "Dredd" Covington.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Rossi, District II, Clayton Lopez, District VI, Billy Wardlow, District III and Tony "Fat" Yaniz, District IV City Commissioners of the City of Key West, do hereby proclaim

Key West Jr. Football 2013 Orange Bowl Champions

in the "Southernmost City of the Continental United States" I would like to urge all citizens, residents and visitors of our Southernmost City to participate fittingly in the observation.

WITNESS my hand and seal of the City of Key West, Florida, this 22nd day of January 2014.

Mark Rossi,
District II City Commissioner

Billy Wardlow,
District III City Commissioner

Clayton Lopez,
District VI City Commissioner

Tony "Fat" Yaniz,
District IV City Commissioner