-- Zoe Aspen Spitz Arrest Narrative:

On Wednesday October 25, 2023, at approximately 04:00 AM, I, Ofc. K. Bouvier responded as a backup unit to 1185 20th St. apartment 205, in reference to a call of a loud verbal argument and a possible physical disturbance.

Officers I. Golovanov and J. Hesse arrived on scene and began the investigation prior to my arrival. Once on scene I assisted by standing by with one half of the party involved in the altercation. I observed that the apartment was in disarray. There were coins spilled across a large portion of the floor as well as a broken wine bottle, consistent with the 911 callers' statement that there were sounds of things being thrown around.

When Ofc. J. Hesse and Ofc. I. Golovanov stepped to the side to discuss the facts of the case, the subject I was standing with began attempting to speak to the other individual involved.

The subject I was standing with was later identified by her Indiana driver license as ZOE ASPEN SPITZ, DOB 08/21/2001.

In an effort to keep Ms. Spitz and her boyfriend from starting to argue again, I instructed Ms. Spitz to step back into the apartment. Ms. Spitz refused to step back into the apartment and stepped closer to her boyfriend. I placed my hand on Ms. Spitz's shoulder and asked her again to step back into the apartment and away from her boyfriend. Ms. Spitz responded by saying "He can come in here." and then attempted to push past me. I attempted to physically redirect Ms. Spitz away from her boyfriend and back into the apartment. Ms. Spitz responded by pushing me and then using her hand to strike me on the right side of my face. After Ms. Spitz struck me, I pushed her away from me, causing her to fall on the bed. I attempted to place Ms. Spitz in handcuffs, however Ms. Spitz continued to strike me, making contact with my chest and arms. Ms. Spitz began to kick me, making contact with my stomach. I responded with one closed hand strike to the left side of Ms. Spitz's face. Ms. Spitz kicked me again causing me to lose my balance and nearly fall to the floor. As I began to stand up, Officers J. Hesse and I Golovanov entered the apartment. Ofc. J. Hesse deployed his KRPD issued Electronic Control Weapon, tasing Ms. Spitz.

(SEE OFC. J. HESSE'S AND OFC. I. GOLOVANOV'S SUPPLEMENTAL REPORTS)

After Ms. Spitz was tased I was able to place her into handcuffs and then put her in my patrol car.

Key West Fire Rescue 3 responded to the scene to treat Ms. Spitz for her injuries.

Ofc. J. Hesse informed me that Ms. Spitz's boyfriend, later identified by his Florida driver license as EDGAR JOEL CASTRO, DOB 03/21/2002, told him that Ms. Spitz caused the scratches and abrasions on his chest neck and arms. I observed scratches on Mr. Castro's right arm, consistent with being grabbed and having fingernails penetrate the skin. I observed a bite mark on Mr. Castro's right arm where he said Ms. Spitz bit him.

Ms. Spitz and Mr. Castro have lived together for the past two years as a couple.

Based on Mr. Castro's injuries, the circumstances surrounding the incident and the physical evidence, I believed probable cause existed that ZOE ASPEN SPITZ, DOB 08/21/2001, did violate Florida Statute 784.03(1)(A)(2)- BATTERY CAUSE BODILY HARM.

Based on the events that transpired and on Ms. Spitz's actions I believed probable cause existed that ZOE ASPEN SPITZ, DOB 08/21/2001, did violate Florida Statute 784.07(2)(B)- BATTERY ON LEO, as well as Florida Statute 843.01- RESIST OFFICER WITH VIOLENCE

Photos were taken of both Ms. Spitz and Mr. Castro and uploaded as evidence.

Sgt. A. Rodriguez responded to the scene to conduct the response to resistance interviews.

After Sgt. Rodriguez completed his interview with Ms. Spitz and Rescue 3 treated Ms. Spitz's injuries, I transported her to Lower Keys Medical Center for medical clearance.

After being medically cleared I transported Ms. Spitz to the Monroe County Detention Center, where she was turned over to Detention Staff without incident.

My K WPD issued Body-Cam was uploading at the time of this incident and subsequently not activated on this call. The In-Car camera system was activated during this call.

On Wednesday, October 25, 2023 at approximately 0400 hours I, Ofc. J. Hesse, was dispatched to the report of a verbal disturbance at 1185 20th St, apartment 205. Upon my arrival, I found Ofc. Golovanov at the location waiting for another officer before contacting the residents.

A female answered the door, later identified as Zoe Spitz, stating there was no issues and that she had dropped a cup full of change on the floor. I activated my Axon BWC around that time and asked about the events that night and advised her of the complaint. Spitz initially indicated she was home alone in the apartment, and she had been arguing with a friend on the phone.

While speaking with Spitz I noted the apartment to have multiple broken items lying on the floor and it appeared that a struggle had taken place. I asked if there was anyone else inside the apartment and she asked if we wanted to come inside and see. I stated we did and stepped inside the apartment to quickly see a male subject near the back of the apartment, standing in broken glass on the floor. The male subject, later identified as Edgar Castro, was ordered outside as we conducted the investigation.

As Ofc. Golovanov spoke with Spitz, I asked Castro about the events of the night, and he told me the two of them had been in a heated argument at the residence. I was told the couple had been downtown drinking that night and there had been some issues with both talking with other "friends" that were perceived as a threat to their own 2 plus year domestic relationship.

Castro told me they began mutually breaking items inside the residence after a bottle of wine had fallen from the top of the refrigerator. He denied any physical involvement at that time. Due to Castro only wearing boxer shorts at the time, I was able to see scratches on his upper left chest, as well as on the inside of his right bicep. I asked him specifically about the scratch marks, which appeared to be very recent as they were red and raised from the surrounding skin, and he told me Spitz had caused the marks earlier in the night.

While Castro said Spitz did not cause the scratches inside the apartment during the incident being investigated, he said she did cause them while the two were out drinking. At multiple times during the conversation, Castro told me Spitz was very intoxicated and "she gets like this" when she drinks. He additionally said she would never harm him while she was sober.

Ofc. Bouvier arrived around this time and stood by with Spitz while I spoke with Ofc. Golovanov about the incident. I told Ofc. Golovanov I believed probable cause to exist for the arrest of Spitz for domestic battery against Castro when I heard a scuffle from the shared apartment.

Ofc. Golovanov and I ran back inside at which time I observed Spitz physically fighting with Ofc. Bouvier. Spitz appeared to me to be punching at Ofc. Bouvier with great force while yelling and lying on her back on the bed. While Ofc. Bouvier was attempting to control her movements, I observed her begin kicking her feet out forcefully at Ofc. Bouvier. Ofc. Golovanov began attempting to control Spitz's arms from continuing to punch at officers and escape officers' grasp. At that time, I believed if Spitz's actions were not immediately ceased injury would occur to officers by the fury of punches and kicks being directed at officers by Spitz.

I then drew and activated my department issued Taser device and aimed at Spitz's upper back. Due to the close proximity of the device to her person, an officers attempting to control her, I was unable to get an adequate spread of the darts across the back as evidenced by the aiming laser lights. I then deployed one cartridge (2 probes) to her left upper back, and a second cartridge (2 probes) to her right lower back.

The deployment of the cartridges caused immediate neuromuscular incapacitation and a change in behavior by Spitz. Officers Golovanov and Bouvier were then able to place Spitz's hands behind her back and secure her in handcuffs. I then immediately notified dispatch of the weapon deployment and a short time later, requested rescue to the scene for Spitz.

Following the deployment, the spent cartridges were removed from my Taser device and all four probes were located with no evidence of probe damage located. The spend cartridges were collected and later entered into evidence.

Photographs of the scene and injuries sustained to Castro were taken and uploaded to evidence.com. Sgt. Rodriguez responded to the scene a short time later. Ofc. Bouvier placed Spitz into custody and transported her to the MCSO jail for the crimes of domestic battery, battery on a LEO, and resisting arrest with violence.

See Ofc. Golovanov's supplemental report, and Ofc. Bouvier's case report for greater details regarding the incident.

On 10/25/2023 at approximately 0400 hours, Officer Bouvier, Officer Hesse, and I, Officer Golovanov, were dispatched to 1185 20TH Street, Unit 205, in reference to a verbal disturbance incident.

Upon arrival, Ofc. Hesse and I met with the female inside unit 205, who was later identified as Zoe A. Spitz. Spitz's boyfriend was also inside the apartment and was later identified as Edgar J. Castro.

We separated the couple, and Ofc. Hesse went outside to speak with Castro. I stayed inside to speak with Spitz. Spitz stated that she verbally argued with her friend on the phone and not with Castro. Spitz also stated that she accidentally knocked the jar with the coins. Next to the entrance door where I and Spitz were standing inside the apartment, I observed multiple coins all over the floor. I did not observe any injuries on Spitz's body.

At this moment, Ofc. Bouvier arrived on the scene. Ofc. Hesse informed me that he would like to speak with me about the incident. I went to speak with Ofc. Hesse and Ofc. Bouvier stayed outside the apartment with Spitz. Spitz, at this time, was inside the apartment.

Ofc. Hesse informed me that Castro had scratches on his right arm and the left side of his chest. Castro stated to Ofc. Hesse that he got those injuries from the Spitz earlier tonight, but he was not sure when exactly.

During my conversation about the incident with Ofc. Hesse, I observed that Ofc. Bouvier pushed Spitz inside the apartment. Ofc. Hesse and I ran inside the apartment, where I observed Spitz lying on the bed on her back and kicking Ofc. Bouvier to the head with her feet. I grabbed Spitz's right arm and rolled Spitz on her stomach. I placed Spitz's right hand behind her back. While I was trying to grab Spitz's left hand and place it behind her back, Spitz pulled her left hand from me. At this moment, Ofc. Hesse tased Spitz in the back with his agency-issued conducted energy device. I placed Spitz's left hand behind her back, and Ofc. Bouvier handcuffed Spitz.

Ofc. Bouvier and I walked Spitz to Ofc. Bouvier patrol car. Ofc. Bouvier placed Spitz in the back of his patrol car.

I took pictures of Castro's injuries and uploaded them to Evidence.com through the Axon Capture app.

I issued Castro a Victim's Rights Brochure with the case number of the incident.
