

Fire Station paid $35,675 in lieu fees to AIPP fund

Request for Proposal – Fire Station #2

FIRE STATION PROJECT: Key West, Florida

Project Description

The purpose of the Diana Nyad Monument (Project) is to commission a qualified artist, artist teams to design a commemorative public art piece in honor of the marathon swimmer Diana Nyad. Diana Nyad with her 35 member support team, five boats and three kayaks successfully swam 103 miles across the Gulf from Cuba on August 31, 2013 to Key West 53 hours later on September 2, 2013. When she arrived in Key West she was greeted by throngs of residents and visitors and captured by local and international media outlets. The project will be responsible for designing, a monument, and a celebration to honor this historic achievement.

Specifications:

1. Materials selection is open to the artist's discretion
2. Encouraging theme based designs
3. It is important for the artist to consider the permanence of the artwork, maintenance requirements and their relationship to such environmental conditions as Key West's harsh sunlight, rain and wind.

Project Background

The Key West Fire Station #2 designed by architects, Michael Ingram and Anthony Sarno is the City of Key West's second fire station located on the same property. The first station was demolished and the site was re-developed into a new-facility to provide for the needs of the community and of the firefighters. Upon completion, the building received a preservation award by the Historic Florida Keys Foundation. That award goes to preservation of structures as well as to those in historic districts that maintain the historic integrity of the neighborhood.

City of Key West employees, as well as selection panelists and panelist's immediate family members, are excluded from participation in this public art project.

About City of Key West Art in Public Places

The Key West Art in Public Places program (AIPP) is a City Commissioner-appointed Board responsible for the commission and purchase of art by contemporary artists in any media. The Key West Art in Public Places 1% for Art Ordinance mandates 1% of qualifying private and public projects costing a minimum of $500,000 and renovations costing a minimum of $100,000 be set aside to fund this program. A three to five member committee appointed by the AIPP Board Chair and approved by the AIPP Board, pre-qualifies, reviews and recommends projects to the City Commissioners, as per AIPP Guidelines and per City Code 1986, 22.01-04 and Sec. 2-481-487. The Art in Public Places Board administers the Key West Art in Public Places program

Selection Process

Appointed by the City of Key West Art in Public Places Board, the Nyad Advisory Committee will be composed of professionals in the field of art, public art, art education, art history, or architectural history. A three-member group will be drawn from the City of Key West Art in Public Places Board to review all artists' work responding to this Call and recommend finalists to develop site specific project proposals. The primary criteria for finalist selection will be previous artistic accomplishment as demonstrated in images of previously completed artwork, public art experience, and exhibition record in galleries and/or museums. The finalists recommend by the Advisory Committee and approved by the art in Public Places Board will be paid a $ Honorium to develop specific proposals prior to final selection. The advisory Committee will review finalists' specific proposals and may recommend one or more of the proposals for commission. Each step of this process will include close consultation with City of Key West Art in Public Places representatives.

Cancellation of RFP

If there are no proposals, which adequately meet the specifications in this document, the committee reserves the right to reject in whole or in part, all proposals submitted and/or cancel this RFP.

Evaluation

The RFP is an information solicitation and offers received are a matter of public record. The proposals presented may be presented to the press, the public or the other government officials. Once submitted, all proposals are the property of the committee.

All proposals will be evaluated on the following criteria:

1. Artistic excellence of the sample work submitted.
2. Proposed approach to the subject.
3. Experience in producing large-scale work.
4. Ability to carry out a nationally significant sculpture commission and do so in a timely manner.

5. Cost of the project.

The Fire Station #2 Jury will conduct the evaluation in three phases:

Phase 1 – The Jury will review all proposals and select not more than ten semi-finalists. The semi-finalists will be given direction by The Jury based on a review of all submissions. All semi-finalists will receive the same feedback and have 30 days to revise their proposals based on The Jury's feedback.

Phase 2 – Based on the revised proposals The Jury will select not more than five finalists. Each finalist will receive a cash prize of $1000. All finalists are required to create a maquette of the sculpture.

Phase 3 -All finalists will travel to Key West, Florida (travel expenses will be paid for) with their maquette to be personally interviewed by the Jury. During this interview finalists will present their design concept and answer questions by The Jury. Finalists will leave their maquette in Key West until a decision is reached. Once a decision is reached, all maquettes will be returned to the artist via UPS.
