

Biography: Arthur Dennison

A native Floridian, raised and educated in Europe, in five different countries. Speaks four languages. Graduated from the Gregorian University in Rome. Ordained a Roman Catholic priest in St. Peter's. Pastor of three parishes in South Florida. Taught high school for fifty-two semesters, mostly in an all-boy high school in Miami. Experienced in administration, evaluation, contract negotiation, conflict resolution. Retired to Key West five years ago. Attended the city's Ambassador Program (Class #22) and subsequently volunteered to serve on the Citizen Review Board. Currently lives and works at St. Mary's Basilica here in Key West.