

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Key West Junior Football League was founded in 1963 and has, for more than six decades, served as a cornerstone of youth development, sportsmanship, and community pride in the City of Key West; and

WHEREAS, the League has provided generations of young athletes with opportunities to learn teamwork, discipline, leadership, and resilience, while strengthening the bonds among families, volunteers, and supporters across our island community; and

WHEREAS, the 2025 season stands as one of the League's most successful to date, marked by exceptional athletic achievement, exemplary conduct on and off the field, and an unwavering commitment to uplifting our youth; and

WHEREAS, the City of Key West recognizes and deeply appreciates the extraordinary outpouring of community involvement and support—by coaches, mentors, parents, sponsors, alumni, and countless volunteers—whose dedication continues to make the League a model for youth sports programs throughout the Florida Keys.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Danise Henriquez, Mayor of the City of Key West, along with the entire Key West City Commission do hereby proclaim December 2, 2025, as in the “Southernmost City of the Continental United States,” and encourage all residents to join in celebrating the League's rich history, its positive impact on the lives of our young athletes, and the enduring spirit of community that has sustained it since 1963.

WITNESS my hand and seal of the City of Key West, Florida, this 2nd day of December, 2025.

Danise Henriquez, Mayor
