

Richard Toppino –Born in Key West, FL in 1961.

Richard graduated from St. Mary's Star of the Sea High School. He continued his education at Tallahassee Community College and The University of Miami before returning home in 1984 to work with the family business, Charley Toppino & Sons. In 1995, Richard started Monroe Concrete Products. Today, with 40 years in the industry, Richard is currently the President of both Companies.

Outside of work, Richard is a standing member of the Basilica St. Mary's star of the Sea church; he serves as the Vice Chairman for the Florida Keys Aqueduct Authority Board of Directors and as an Advisory Board member for Truist bank. He holds memberships with the Military Affairs Commission, Florida Independent Concrete & Associated Products (FICAP) and Florida Transportation Builders' Association (FTBA).

Richard enjoys spending his free time with his wife of 39 years, Debra, their 3 children and 7 grandchildren.