Re: Recycling Plan for 35th Annual Survivor's Party on May 28th

This year the Sister Season Fund and Southernmost Beach Cafe will be ensuring that recycling and going green is a major aspect. The Southernmost Beach Cafe already has a recycling plan in effect with their daily operations. The Survivor's Party will just be using the Southernmost Beach Cafe's recycling containers as well as their large dumpster. Presently the Cafe has ensured that there are plenty of recycling and regular trash cans to place all around the beach. All Trash will be picked up with their Southernmost beach Cafe's scheduled times, so this will not be an inconvenience to Waste Management.

Afterward, the volunteers of the Sister Season Fund as well as employees from the Southernmost Beach Cafe will be canvassing the beach and surf to pick up any loose debris that may contaminate our beach and/or waters.

Carrie Babich [(305) 296-6577] will be the Recycling Coordinators and with a team of volunteers from the Sister Season Fund, will be going around insuring that people are using the correct receptacle. There will be signage for the recycle containers as well as announcements made periodically throughout the event from the announcer(s).

We will provide Photos after the event to prove what we plan on doing.

Respectfully Submitted,

Brad T. Buckholts
