

Jeffrey A. Stotts
P.O. Box 4273
Key West, FL 33041
305.304.0273
tropicexped@gmail.com

Employment History [1980- present]

- Management staff of Plant/Tree farm in Homestead FL.
- Growing and planting coastal marine plants, including mangroves for state of Florida, Department of Natural Resources/ HRS, revegetation/mitigation projects in Monroe County.
- Landscaper
- Master Gardener (20+yr), UF Institute of Food and Agricultural Science (IFAS)
- Monroe County Horticultural Program assistant
- Horticultural assistant University of Florida Monroe County Extension Service
- Florida Yards & Neighborhood Program, Monroe County, UF Institute of Food and Agricultural Science (IFAS)University of Florida
- Tropical fruit home grower program, University of Florida IFAS
- Arborist (ISA).
- Butterfly/pollinator conservation programming (UF).
- City of Key West Landscape Inspector
- State of Florida Certified Code Enforcement officer
- Creator of the Florida Keys Tropical Fruit Fiesta
- Environmental landscape / Sustainable development consultant
- Florida Keys nature guide and Natural history researcher

Education/Training

- University of Florida Master Gardener course
- Environmental horticultural, University of Florida, (UF) Institute of Food and Agricultural Science (IFAS).
- University of Florida Tropical Fruit growing and Research Graduate program UF TREC (Tropical Research Education Center) Institute of Food and Agricultural Science (IFAS)

Professional associations:

FNPS (Florida Native Plant Society)
FKEPTF (Florida Keys Exotic Plant Task Force)
University of Florida Institute of Food and Agricultural Science (IFAS).
APS (BUM) American Phytopathological Society
ISA (International Society of Arborist)
NABA (North American Butterfly Association)