CITY OF KEY WEST ART IN PUBLIC PLACES PROGRAM

Key West Art in Public Places (AIPP) is a City Commission appointed Board responsible for the ordinance (City Code Section 2-487) that mandates that 1% of the costs of qualifying public and private construction and renovation projects be set aside for the acquisition, administration, commission, installation and maintenance of artwork to be placed on the site of said construction or deposited to the AIPP Community Fund 110 in lieu of art. Qualifying projects include: New construction projects that qualify as a major development plan (MDP) and exceed $500,000.00 in cost; renovation projects that qualify as a major development plan and exceed $100,000.00 in cost; and any qualifying governmental agency-owned project within Key West that requires a building permit. The Key West AIPP Program is administered through the AIPP Administrator in the City of Key West Planning Department, the Florida Keys Council of the Arts, and the AIPP Board.

PROJECT BUDGET

The maximum art budget amount, inclusive of all costs for artists including installation, is $39,000 for any and all commissions for this project. The selected artist(s) shall work with the AIPP Board and the City project management team.

PROJECT HISTORY AND SITE DESCRIPTION

Douglass Gym is a rebuilt recreation and community center situated in the designated historic district (Old Town) on the island of Key West. The Florida Keys, a 43-island archipelago extends 210 miles from the Southeast coast of Florida, and separates the Gulf of Mexico from the Atlantic Ocean. The first Frederick Douglass School opened in 1870 for African students in the segregated Monroe County School System. The school was located at the corner of Fleming and Thomas Streets behind the Monroe County Courthouse. As enrollment increased, the school moved first to Emma Street and in 1925 to a new building on Thomas Street near Southard Street. With integration of the Monroe County School system in 1965, Douglass School was closed as the school district began the integration of all students. The facility was used briefly by the Community College, and also was the Glynn Archer Junior High. In 1970, it became Douglass Elementary School until 1977, when it closed for a final time. The school was named for Fredrick Douglass, one of America's most distinguished African-American orators and abolitionist of the 1800s. Douglass, as a member of the Santo Domingo Commission appointed by President U.S. Grant, visited Key West in March 1871. The completely renovated building houses a gymnasium, stage, locker rooms, a small community classroom and the District 6 Commissioner's office. Additional plans to renovate the health clinic and community music classroom are underway.

SCOPE OF WORK

The goal of the project is to place site specific artwork, both interior and exterior artwork may be proposed at any of the specified targeted spaces (below) including; the 4 exterior paneled walls (Emma Street), or front door patio area OR within the Gym – the windows need covering or banners from the ceiling. Artists may propose artwork for one of the targeted spaces, or present a cohesive proposal for more than one space. All proposed artwork shall be original and site specific. Proposals should reflect the history of the facility and the neighborhood, and may also take into consideration the facility is also used for youth fitness, learning, community gathering, music and dance events. the City from declaring a forfeiture for any succeeding breach either of the same conditions or of any other conditions.

5. A request to inspect or copy public records relating to a City contract must be made directly to the City, but if the City does not possess the records requested, the City shall immediately notify the Artist of the request, and the Artist must provide the records to the City or allow the records to be inspected or copied within a reasonable time.

If the Artist does not comply with the City's request for records, the City shall enforce the public records contract provisions in accordance with the contract, notwithstanding the City's option and right to unilaterally cancel this contract upon violation of this provision by the Artist. An Artist who fails to provide the public records to the City or pursuant to a valid public records request within a reasonable time may be subject to penalties under Section 119.10, Florida Statutes.

Artist represents and warrants that the artwork, as fabricated and installed, will be free from defects in material and workmanship which cause or accelerate deterioration of the artwork and that reasonable maintenance of the artwork will not require procedures substantially in excess of those described in the Artist's maintenance recommendations or proposal. The warranties described in this Article shall survive for a period of five (5) years after final acceptance of the artwork, with periodic required maintenance by the City according to instructions provided by the Artist. The City shall give written notice to the Artist of any breach of this warranty during the five (5) year period. The Artist shall, at no cost to the City, cure reasonably and promptly the breach of warranty by means of repair, restoration, refurbishing, re-creation, or replacing the artwork.
23. REPAIRS AND RESTORATION. The City reserves the right to determine when and if repairs and restorations to the artwork will be made after final acceptance.
