

SAB Report – Energy

November 2023

- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator attended the National Association of Energy Services (NAESCO) Annual Conference in New Orleans.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator is working on the RFP for City's Energy Savings Performance Contract which is a project necessary in achieving City's Ten-Year Energy Plan.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator attended the 2nd Florida Keys Interagency Adaptation Forum, featuring speakers on Energy Service Companies, Tax Credits and Waste to Energy. Over a dozen state, federal and local partners were in attendance.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator attended the Kick off Steering Committee meeting for the Adaptation Plan, featuring initial steps for the Vulnerability Assessment.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator acted as a moderator for the RFQ ranking for the Watershed Management Plan. The group ranked Erin Deady P.A as highest (and only) bidder at 92 average points.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator attended regularly scheduled meetings of the Compact's CPRG grant,
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator is taking the Performance Contracting National Resource Center (PCNRC) Training Certificate Series and had completed module 1 of 8.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator is volunteering at the city's Holiday Parade.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator voluntarily attended the Reef Annual Meeting.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator attended the Employee Committee meetings.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator attended the Southeast & Caribbean Disaster Resilience Partnership meeting.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator began editing the 10 Year Energy Plan.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator attended Alison Higgins (Sustainability Coordinator) presentation at the Keys College for the Marine Policy Class on Sea-level rise and Climate Adaptation.
- Adaptation and Energy Coordinator attended multiple webinars on energy efficiency upgrades and appliances.