Get a cozy feeling inside the Fox's Den. Make it your home away from home. This is a brand-new, tropical condo inside a 1928 historic, million-dollar home on Fleming Street, located in the most desirable area of Key West. Airy and bright, this piece of paradise is centrally located. You can bike safely, using Fleming, Southard, and White Streets' bike routes, which are all connected to this property. Just a short ride, and you can be relaxing on Higgs or Smathers Beach, or snorkel, swim, fish or picnic at Fort Zachary Taylor State Park. Two bikes are ready to use when renting this property. Within walking distance are amazing restaurants, shopping, nightlife, marinas, and of course the famous Duval Street and Mallory Square, where performers and crafts persons will help you celebrate sunset every day of the year!

Perhaps you will enjoy just relaxing in this quiet, secluded, spacious, two-floor condo. Enjoy the outdoors on your private deck with a bistro table for that morning java, or anytime cocktail.

Absolutely everything is new from the walls to the furniture and appliances, down to the bicycles. Enjoy the convenience of two full bath (one on each floor,) two flat-paneled televisions (one on each floor,) and high-speed wireless internet service throughout. This property can sleep up to six utilizing one queen-size bed, one full-size sleep siesta (a mix between a sofa bed and a futon - which is super easy to use and very comfy,) and an electric, inflatable queen bed.

Our unit rents monthly, but please contact owner for other rental options and alternative pricing. ✓

I found this

American piece of paradise in 1996, when I made my first visit to Key West. If you ever speak to Key West Locals, and ask them why they are attracted to the island, you will often get replies such as,

"I felt I had to move here the first time I came here," or, "I was here for vacation for two weeks, and decided to stay." Whatever it is..there is a sort of "island fever," that takes some of us over. I caught this fever the very first time I came to Key West for a week vacation. The island environment (the people, the ocean, the coral reefs, the entire way of life,) immediately engulfed me and I was smitten! I spent the next 14 years vacationing in Key West as often as I could.

We chose to purchase our vacation home in Key West because of the tropical environment. We love the ocean, the weather, the marine life, and the friendliness of the locals. It is easily accessible inside the United States. We are able to catch a flight at 6am from Pennsylvania, and be in Key West by noon.

Our unit is unique in it's centralized location. First, it's an beautifully maintained, historic section of Key West. Most of Key West is easily navigated by foot, having access to marinas, museums, restaurants, museum shopping, etc. It is also just a short bike or car ride away from three breathtaking beaches. The property is secluded and quiet but any activity you desire is just around the corner!

Fortunately, my husband also loves the island. And more fortunately, we had the opportunity in 2010 to purchase our dream piece of paradise.

Some day, we want to make Key West our full-time home. Now Key West is not for everyone to live, but it is an amazing place to visit. We would like to share our piece of paradise with you. Whether your visit to our condo is to get away from the cold weather, to experience a tropical environment, or just to enjoy your vacation, we hope you will be just as happy as we are when you visit the Fox's Den on Fleming.
Warmly, Tammy and Richard Fox

It was a sad day for me to leave Paradise, The Fox's Den was just what I expected, you walk out the door, and the fun begins, Duval

St,resturants,beaches and parks are right at your feet.Let me not forget Mallory Square is around the block,you have the best sunsets you will ever see,also you have the cat man,who will make you laugh to tears are running down your face,I know I will go back next year,it was a great place to stay.

Owner response:We are so glad you enjoyed your stay in Paradise, and that we were able to make your stay even more enjoyable and convenient staying at The Fox's Den. We'd love to have you back anytime.

My husband and I are renting the place now and we love it. It's on 2 levels and is very comfortable. Feels like home. Fully stocked kitchen, nice furniture, a charming little outdoor bistro set on a small deck surrounded by foliage. We had no trouble finding street parking. Internet works great. We didn't rent their bikes but they look like good bikes. The only thing that could have made the stay more comfortable would have been a king sized bed (rather than a queen). But hey, it's just a month, right? :) We would stay here again.

Owner response:We are thrilled that you are able to make our piece of paradise your "home away from home." Your feedback is greatly appreciated. Please stay with us again and enjoy the remainder of your visit!
