CC2022-01142

						On July 29, 2022 it was clarify that the unpermitted work (pool) in question had an application on file and only needed some information that was provided. On this same day permit is ready for pick up and the contractor was advised to pick it up.
FOLLOW UP	RS	7/29/2022	7/29/2022			Due to the quick solution of this matter and before the NOCV was sent it was agreed by Director of Code and I that the property owner will not be cited, NOCV for the contractor will be voided and the only consequence will be the contractor attending the next CEB meeting on September 7, 2022. Case and stop work order will be remove as soon permit is pick up.
FOLLOW UP	RS	8/3/2022	8/3/2022			To Wit: On August 3, 2022 The Stop Work order was removed and all permits were issued. Case Closed
INITIAL INSPECTION	RS	7/28/2022	7/28/2022			To Wit: As of today July 27, 2022 During an area canvas of the subject property I observed and photographed a large hole that has been excavated without the benefit of the permit. TUT BUILDERS LLC (John Tutlewski) applied for the permit (BLD2022-1833) yet it hasn't been approved. The STOP WORK order was posted. Nobody was seen working around at the moment.
