

Key West Earth Week Celebrations

The City of Key West is teaming up with other environmental organizations to make this an earth week to remember! Short movies, cleanups and community projects, culminating in a green cooking party, award winning movie and an experts panel, will help all Keys residents and visitors learn how to live lighter on this earth, live a healthier life, and save some money to boot!

Visit www.keywestcity.com for more details.

Wed, April 18th

- 8:30am-12pm Little Hamaca City Park clean up. Bring gloves and own water container if you can!
- 8pm "I AM" Outdoor Movie, Old Town Manor
 - $10 entry proceeds donated towards Bahama Village Community Garden
 - Raffle prizes, Cash Bar, and Sumptuous snacks provided by Help Yourself

Thurs, April 19th

- 5:30-6:30pm – FREE Garden Tour, GLEE Community Garden (corner of Leon and Seminary)
 - Hosted by Jody Smith-Williams

Friday, April 20th

- 5-7pm GLEE Earth Day and Sustainable Finger Food Fundraiser Event, hosted by the Bottlecap. Raffles, great food, great people and a great cause. Come learn more about the proposed Bahama Village Community Gardens!

Saturday, April 21st

- 9am-5pm - Tot Swap: An 'Everything Kids' Consignment Sale and Fundraiser at 2926 North Roosevelt Blvd (next to Publix). Hosted by Keys Healthy Start Coalition.

Sunday, April 22nd

- "Forks Over Knives" screening, Sustainability Panel and Book Signing. Tropic Cinemas
 - $10 entry donated to Bahama Village Community Garden
- Noon – Green Transportation Showcase at Conch Republic Car Show, Schooner Wharf
- 1-6pm - Big Shark Shout Out. Five Free Shark movies at the EcoDiscovery Center, starting on the hour
- 5:30pm - Rock Nacional on the Rock! A Blue Heaven Earth Day Outdoor Music Festival. Suggested donation of $10 per adult to support authentic Latin American music and dance in our City of the Arts!

Tuesday, April 24th

- 5-8pm - Happy Hour fundraiser at Lazy Gecko benefiting Reef Relief's Key West Marine Park Program and Coral Camp 2012.

Thursday, April 26th

- 7pm "Green" Berets at the Conch Republic Longest Parade. All kinds of sustainable transportation (including walking!) wanted. Find a green hat and come join us!