

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Comcast Cares Day 2013 marks 12 years of Comcast Cares Day and will draw together more than 75,000 Comcast employees and family members to participate in volunteer projects in hundreds of communities around the country; and

WHEREAS, this event provides Comcast employees an organized opportunity to volunteer over 400,000 hours in a single day which benefits the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, since 2001 more than 437,000 Comcast volunteers have donated 2.6 million hours of service on over 4,200 projects in 39 states and the Washington D.C. area; and

WHEREAS, this year, Comcast employees nationwide will make a difference by rolling up their sleeves and work on a variety of projects which may include cleaning, painting, landscaping, donating to food banks, blood drives, United Way, Relay For Life and more; and

WHEREAS, this year, over 50 Comcast employees and their families; employees of Samuel's House, Inc. and their community partners (from Key West to Key Largo), will be painting, washing windows, planting and spring cleaning for Samuel's House on Saturday, April 27, 2013.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Craig Cates, Mayor of the City of Key West, do hereby proclaim April 27, 2013 as

COMCAST CARES DAY

in the "Southernmost City of the Continental United States" I would like to urge all citizens, residents and visitors of our Southernmost City to participate fittingly in the observation.

WITNESS my hand and seal of the City of Key West, Florida, this 2nd day of April 2013.

_____
Craig Cates, MAYOR