Tropical home away from home

Reviewed March 12, 2012 for a stay in February 2012

We were so lucky to choose Tropical Oasis for our vacation in Key West! It suited us perfectly: the tropical garden all around the house and surrounding the pool was just like tropical oasis, the open patio where we spend most of time was great; the whole atmosphere was so relaxing and homely. Our kid had plenty of room to run and play and we enjoyed our time immensely. Thank you, Ingo, for sharing your home with us and for taking care of all the things that we asked and much much more. We would not hesitate in recommending this house to anyone. This is the place to stay in Key West - a bit way from the noise of Duval but so quiet and close to the best beach.

"I've stayed here three times: twice in the winter, once in the summer. The listing is accurate. Sailing on the Jade is a must. The owner's dog (Macy) is priceless. Close to the beach, not too far from downtown, very quiet, great pool, excellent amenities. Highly recommended. I will only stay here when in Key West."

In addition, the beds in each room are Queen size - I would never put my business in jeopardy with false descriptions of my accommodations. I take all reviews, comments and suggestions seriously and will, after consideration, always attempt to make any changes or updates that would enhance the value and beauty of my home. I regret that you did not enjoy my home as others have.

A week prior to your arrival, my home received a very positive review: "Thank you for sharing your unique home with us. It's eclectic and open style fitted our Key West adventure perfectly. We had a lovely vacation." The description of my home is accurate. The lush vegetation around the pool is a deliberate ascetic statement to emphasize an otherwise ordinary pool in a tropical setting. Past guests enjoyed swimming underneath the overhanging Chinese Fan leaves and loved the sense of privacy.

Very disappointingGuest: Jim Leich (Indianapolis, IN)
Date of Stay: 01/10/12 Review Submitted: 01/15/12

My husband and I have rented many times through vrbo with much success, but this house was not represented accurately. The whole place was not tropical, it was a jungle. You can barely get into the house for the overgrown plants and trees in the way. The backyard pool was totally obscured with overgrown foliage, it was so dark that even in the daytime we had to have lights on outside in order to read. Forget getting in the pool, the trees took it over. The refrigerator and freezer were filthy. The house smelled so musty it was difficult to stay inside. The beds were not queen sized, but double and very uncomfortable. There are some charming houses in key west, we've rented there two other times, but this is not one of them. This wasn't a vacation home, it was occupied and they vacated it just in time for us to arrive.
