Re: Supplemental information for Appeal
Michael R. Deegan Revocable Trust
BTR No. 24793

Dear Ms. Mellies:

Attached is supplemental information regarding the Michael R. Deegan Revocable Trust's ("Trust" or "client") basis of appeal of the non-renewal of its transient rental license, BTR No. 24793. As you are aware, the City claims this transient rental license was sold and transferred to a new owner, and the City refused to allow the Trust to renew its transient license. The denial by the City was in error as described in the attached supplemental information.

Please coordinate with me for setting a hearing date for this appeal. Thank you.

Sincerely,

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION
MICHAEL R. DEEGAN REVOCABLE TRUST APPEAL
OF CITY'S NON-RENEWAL OF BTR NO. 24793

The following information provides supplemental information to the notice of appeal which was filed initially with the City on December 2, 2021, and finalized on March 3, 2022.

BASIS OF APPEAL

1. A copy of the filed notice of appeal is attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit A.
2. Section 66-87 of the Key West, Florida Municipal Code (2021)(“City Code”) requires a BTR<sup>1</sup> for any persons or entities engaged in business within the City of Key West.
3. Under the City Code, the rental of transient residential units is a business activity which requires a BTR.
4. The city manager is charged with taking applications for BTRs, determining whether or not they comply with all Code requirements, and for the ultimate approval or denial of the applications. §§ 66-86, 66-96, City Code.

5. Section 66-103, City Code, sets forth certain requirements for the transfer of a BTR “when there is a bona fide sale of the business” from one owner to a new owner, but does not authorize the City to sua sponte transfer a BTR from one owner to another.

6. Petitioner owned Unit 2, 715 Duval Condominium, at 520 DuPont Lane, Key West, Florida (the “Property”) and rented the Property transiently pursuant to transient rental BTR No. 24793.

7. On or about September, 20, 2016, the Trust transferred the Property via warranty deed to Dennis Koshier. A true and accurate copy of the warranty deed is attached as Exhibit B.

8. The sale and transfer of the Property was for the Property only and did not include the sale and transfer of the rental business which held the transient rental unit BTR.

9. On or about November 23, 2021, the Trust, through its agent Trepanier & Associates, submitted an application and a check for payment of the renewal fee and all back payments and penalty fees to renew its transient rental BTR pursuant to Sections 66-96 and 66-97, City Code. Also, the application requested the BTR be placed into “unassigned status.” A true and accurate copy of the application is attached as Exhibit C.

10. Contrary to its duty to accept and evaluate applications for BTRs, the City declined to accept and evaluate the Trust's application because, according to the City's chief licensing official and confirmed by the City Attorney, the "license had been sold."

11. On that basis, the City refused to reinstate or renew the Trust's transient rental BTR.

12. The Trust never sold its rental business and the associated transient rental BTR. Yet, the City improperly allowed the purchaser of the Property, Dennis Koshier,<sup>2</sup> apparently acting on behalf of the Trust, to renew the BTR on or about 2/25/2020 (see Exhibit C). Dennis Koshier had no authority to act on behalf of the Trust.

13. On or about 2/28/2020, the City improperly transferred the BTR to Dennis Koshier and removed the Trust as the owner or holder of the BTR (see Exhibit C). This transfer of the BTR was done without authority, and contrary to Section 66-103, City Code, by both the City and Dennis Koshier because the Trust never sold the rental business or transient rental BTR. Pursuant to Section 66-103, a transient rental license or BTR cannot be transferred unless there is a “bona fide sale of the business.” The sale of the Property was not a sale of the rental business.

14. Yet again, on or about 10/13/2021, the City impermissibly transferred the transient rental BTR to Anthony Lespagnol of Go Get LLC (see Exhibit C). This transfer was improper because the Trust never sold the business to Dennis Koshier which necessarily means that Mr. Koshier could not sell the business to Anthony Lespagnol. Simply put, there has been no bona fide sale of the Trust’s rental business and transient rental BTR which necessarily prevents any transfer of the transient rental BTR by the City.

15. The alleged transfer of the Trust’s BTR by the City was without the approval or knowledge of the Trust. Not to mention that any alleged transfer was in direct violation of Section 66-103, City Code, which only allows the transfer of a license or BTR when there is a “bona fide sale of the business.” The Trust did not sell the business which holds the transient rental BTR, thus the alleged transfers by the City are void.

16. Upon information and belief, the City Attorney approved the transfer of the BTR, albeit erroneously, on the basis that the BTR could not be transferred from the Property and that the BTR automatically transferred with the sale of the Property.

17. The basis of the City Attorney's decision was incorrect because BTRs are linked to business activity and not something that runs with the land. Simply put, businesses are bought and sold separately from real property, and a BTR is the required license for a business which can only be transferred when there is a bona fide sale of a business. See §66-103, City Code.

18. The Trust has requested and tried to submit an application for its BTR to be reissued and placed in unassigned status but the City refused to accept the Trust's application to renew or reinstate its transient rental BTR on the erroneous basis that the BTR had already been sold or transferred.

19. The City's refusal to follow its own Code regarding the transfer of BTRs and its refusal to renew the Trust's transient rental BTR deprived, and continues to deprive, the Trust of its rights to the BTR.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated above, the Trust's transient rental BTR must be reinstated. The City Code is unambiguous that a BTR can only be transferred when there is a “bona fide sale of the business.” Here, there was no such sale of a business. The Trust sold the Property and nothing more. The subsequent transfers of the BTR were improper and must be corrected.

Respectfully submitted June 14, 2022.

RE: BTR No. 24793 Renewal

Dear Mr. Ramsingh:

On the afternoon of November 23, 2021, Ms. Stange of Trepanier & Associates submitted an application to renew Business Transient Receipt ("BTR") No. 24793 to the Chief Licensing Official ("CLO"), Ms. Amanda Brady, of the City of Key West (copy attached).

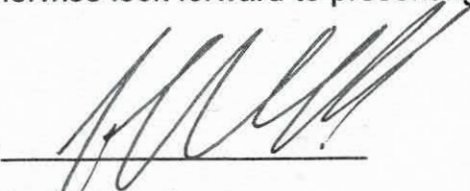

The CLO accepted the application, took it into the back-office area of the building to review. When the CLO returned, the CLO told Ms. Stange that the BTR had been transferred twice since the Michael Deegan Revocable Trust owned it and therefore Ms. Stange could not renew it on behalf of the Michael Deegan Revocable Trust. The CLO then returned the application to Ms. Stange.

Ms. Stange requested copies of the subsequent BTRs. The CLO accepted the application a second time and went into the back office. The CLO returned to the front desk and provided three BTRs with payment receipts (attached) and again returned the renewal application to Ms. Stange.

The facts above leave me to believe there was an acceptance of the application, however, it seems probable that Ms. Brady was refusing acceptance thereof and perhaps might assert the same in this process. It was apparent at this point to Ms. Stange that the CLO was refusing to accept the duly tendered application.

Thereafter, Owen Trepanier notified me that the application had been rejected. I said that is not possible because the City can not refuse to accept an application. The Thanksgiving Holiday now upon us and me being out of town, made dealing with the boondoggle by the City somewhat difficult. I was just out of town to arrive back in Key West on Dec. 1, 2021. After talking with Mr. Trepanier, I requested he prepare on my behalf this letter that shall act as notice of appeal pursuant to Code. I look forward to your response or otherwise look forward to presenting to the City Commission on this matter.
