The 3nd Annual Run for Rhonda is a charitable benefit hosted by Run for Rhonda Charity Inc. Key West, a local 501(c)(3) organization. We launched this event 2024 in loving memory of our dear friend Rhonda Flores, whom we tragically lost in a car accident on Cinco de Mayo in 2023. This run was created not only to honor her life, but to continue the legacy of generosity and compassion she embodied.

The event features both a 5K and a 1-mile run, with proceeds benefiting Take Stock in Children, a cause that was especially close to Rhonda's heart. Thanks to overwhelming community support, our past 2 Run for Rhonda events raised $25,000, providing a full scholarship to one deserving TSIC student—an impact we are incredibly proud of and hope to expand upon this year.

Event setup will begin at 5:00 a.m. A DJ will provide music and energy from 7:00 - 10:00 a.m., with runner registration and check-in opening at 7:00 a.m. The race will kick off promptly at 8:00 a.m. Participants will complete two scenic loops around the Truman Waterfront promenade, starting and finishing in front of the Ingham Ship.

Following the run, runners will enjoy snacks and beverages, along with a short but meaningful awards ceremony. Last year and the year before, thanks to excellent coordination and volunteers, the event was fully packed up and the area cleaned by 12:00 p.m., and we anticipate a similarly smooth and efficient conclusion this year.
