Grievance/Discrimination Complaint Procedures Equal Opportunity

I. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IS THE LAW:

It is against the law for this recipient of Federal financial assistance to discriminate on the following bases: (1) Against any individual in the United States on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation or belief; and (2) Against any beneficiary of programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA), on the basis of the beneficiary's citizenship/status as a lawfully admitted immigrant authorized to work in the United States, or his/her participation in any WIA Title I-financially assisted program or activity.

The recipient must not discriminate in any of the following areas: (1) Deciding who will be admitted, or have access, to any WIA Title I-financially assisted program or activity; (2) Providing opportunities in, or treating any person with regard to, such a program or activity; or (3) Making employment decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such a program or activity.

II. DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT:

What to Do If the Trainee Believes to Have Experienced Discrimination

If the trainee thinks that s/he has been subjected to discrimination under a WIA Title I-financially assisted program or activity, s/he may file a complaint within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation by obtaining a copy of AWI's Discrimination Complaint Processing Procedures by visiting AWI's website at: http://www.floridajobs.org/civilrights/ocr_compaint.html. ### III. GRIEVANCE/COMPLAINT PROCEDURE:

- 1. Grievances/complaints that do not allege unlawful discrimination shall be filed with South Florida Workforce's (SFW) Customer Service Unit, 7300 Corporate Center Drive, Suite 500, Miami, Florida 33126-1234.
- 2. All grievances/complaints must be put in writing, signed and dated by the grievant/complainant or his/her representative.
- 3. All grievances/complaints should include the grievant/complainant's name, a contact address, and a contact telephone number.
- 4. All grievances/complaints should include a statement regarding the law the grievant/complainant thinks was violated and/or the reasons s/he thinks is entitled to the service or benefit which has been denied, delayed, reduced, changed, or terminated.
- The grievance/complaint should state the remedy the grievant/complainant is seeking.
- 6. The SFW's Customer Service Unit shall review, and attempt to informally resolve the initial grievance/complaint. If the grievance/complaint cannot be resolved informally, then a hearing shall be held and a decision issued within the required 60 calendar days from receipt of the grievance/complaint.
- 7. If SFW has: a) conducted a hearing the grievant/complainant is dissatisfied with or has been adversely affected by the Hearing Officer's decision; b) not conducted a hearing within the 60 calendar days from receipt of the grievance/complaint; or c) conducted the hearing but has not issued a decision within the mandated 60 calendar day timeframe, then the grievant/complainant may file an appeal with AWI. The appeal must be filed with AWI within 30 calendar days of receipt of SFW Hearing Officer's decision or within 30 calendar days after the required 60-calendar day timeframe for SFW to act has elapsed.
- 8. The appeal shall be sent certified mail, return receipt, to the Agency for Workforce Innovation, Office of General Counsel, Caldwell Building-Suite 150, 107 East Madison Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-4128.
- 9. If SFW or AWI has not issued a decision within the required 60 calendar-day timeframe, the grievant/complainant can file an appeal to the United States Department of Labor (USDOL) no later than 120 calendar days of the filing with AWI. In cases where a decision has been reached and the party to which such a decision has adversely impacted wishes to appeal to the Secretary, an appeal must be filed within 60 days of the receipt of the decision being appealed. A copy of the appeal must be simultaneously provided to the appropriate USDOL Regional Administrator and the opposing party.
- 10. The Request for Review/Appeal must be submitted by certified mail, return receipt to: Secretary, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210, Attention ASET.

IV. RETALIATION PROHIBITED:

No person or agency may discharge, or in any other manner discriminate or retaliate against any person, or deny any person a benefit to which that person is entitled under the provisions or the Act or the regulations because such person has filed any complaint, instituted or caused to institute any proceedings under or related to the Act has testified or is about to testify in any such proceedings or investigation or has provided information or assisted in an investigation.
