with her. Vega appeared visibly upset and began to say unintelligible things to me. I explained to Vega, that I needed her name and Date of Birth. While speaking with Vega, her voice was slurred and I could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from her breath. Vega began to argue with Ofc. Sims and myself. Due to Vega's high level of intoxication, lost of self control and the lack of any responsible party to take care of her, we decided to place her into protective custody under the Marchaman Act. Ofc. Sims handcuffed Vega and we began to walk her to my patrol car located on Caroline Street. As we were walking Vega to my car, Vega was unsteady on her feet and having trouble walking due to her high level of intoxication. We escorted Vega to my patrol car and waited for Ofc Williams to respond to conduct a search of Vega's person.

Ofc. Williams searched Vega and we attempted to place her in the rear of my patrol car. Vega refused to get in the car and had to be physically placed in the car by officers on scene. A few minutes went by and Vega suddenly became agitated again. Vega began to thrash her body violently in the rear of the car. Due to Vega's bizarre behavior and the opportunity for Vega to injure herself, I opened the door in an attempt to better restrain Vega. Vega suddenly and swiftly turned her body and moved her feet outside of the car door. Ofc. Sims stepped in and gave Vega several loud verbal commands to get back in the car. Vega refused and Ofc. Sims used his Department issued Taser and gave Vega one drive stun to her left thigh area. The drive stun had no effect on Vega, however she eventually moved her legs back inside the vehicle.

Sgt. Wood arrived on scene.

I transported Vega to MCDC. While enroute to the jail, Vega began to violently bang her head on the partition of my patrol vehicle.

BWC was activated during this incident.

Cleared by arrest.

Catherine Vega did intentionally and unlawfully resist officers on scene by refusing to sit in the patrol car and by refusing to place her legs back inside the vehicle, thus contrary to F.S.S 843.02

Cleared by arrest.

I swear the above statement is correct and true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
