Offense

RESIST ARREST / ESCAPE

On November 23rd, 2018 Officer B. Dehanas, Officer T. Calvert and I were dispatched to a trespass call. The RP Mathew Sullivan wanted his friend, Nina Triggiani to be trespassed from his home.

When Officer T. Calvert and I arrived on scene we were flagged down by the RP, Mathew Sullivan, who informed us that his friend was inside his home and wanted her gone. When I asked Sullivan what happened, he told me that he was in a deep sleep when Triggiani woke him up. Sullivan said they got into a verbal argument. Sullivan told me he threw his sheet at her for waking him up. Then she threw a spoon at him and a cube of ice.

Officer Calvert asked Triggiani for her ID or name and date of birth and Triggiani said she wasn't going to give it to him. Officer Calvert informed her that he was investigating a possible crime and that by refusing to provide her information she was resisting his ability to perform his duties. Triggiani then started to walk away. Officer Calvert used the straight armbar takedown to bring Triggiani to the ground. Once Triggiani was on the ground Officer Calvert and Officer Dehanas attempted to put handcuffs on Triggiani. Triggiani resisted getting handcuffed by trying to put her hands into her stomach area and twisting her torso back and forth. Once in handcuffs Triggiani began screaming hysterically.

Officer Calvert and Officer Dehanas assisted Triggiani to her feet and walked her to my patrol car. Triggiani began kicking violently behind her with mule kicks striking Officer Calvert in the legs. Once in the car Triggiani continued kicking her feet and thrashing her body back and forth. Officer Dehanas and Officer Calvert managed to get a seatbelt on Triggiani by pressing her body and head against the back of the seat. the seatbelt was ratcheted so that Triggiani's ability to toss her body was limited. Triggiani continued to scream hystericaly during this procedure. Officer Calvert was not injured by the mule kicks.

Officer Calvert contacted Sgt Rodriguez and advised him that he conducted a response to resistance involving a straight armbar takedown. Sgt Rodriguez responded to the scene and spoke with the officers involved and Triggiani. Officer Calvert and I transported Triggiani to the MCDL. Our BWC's and in-car COBAN recording systems were activated during this encounter and during transport.
