On Friday, October 4, 2019 at 6:38 PM, I was dispatched to Boog Powell Court which is inside the Wicker's Sports Complex at Kennedy Drive and Flagler Avenue for two homeless subjects camping. Sergeant Vazquez heard about the subjects, from someone attending the high school football game, and contacted me over Key West Communications Channel One about the issue. Boog Powell Court is flanked on each side by parking spaces for the Wicker's Sports Complex.

I found one of the subjects, Kari Dangler, who I knew from previous arrests in the area. As I approached, Kari yelled, "you can go to hell" at someone. Kari had a comforter laid out in the grass with a whicker mat on top of it. She had a bag of chips out, her backpack, and a bag. I also observed a bicycle. Kari told me she was there to watch the high school football game. While I was speaking with Kari, Clyde Messmer who I also knew from previous arrests, walked up. I was also aware that Clyde was a registered sex offender. Clyde told me the bicycle was his. Clyde also had a backpack with all his belongings in it. Clyde later told me the comforter and mat belonged to himself and Kari but then said they just belonged to Kari. Incident to arrest, I found several containers of Skol Vodka in Kari's backpack, some of which were open. Kari admitted to drinking this day.

Clyde was most recently warned about camping on December 19, 2019 by Officer Waite (KWPD Case#: 18007168).

Kari was most recently arrested for camping on August 29, 2018 my me (KWPD Case#: 18004768).

I told Clyde and Kari to walk toward my patrol car which was parked across the parking lot. I retrieved an extra pair of handcuffs from my patrol car and walked toward Clyde. I told him to take his backpack off and put his hands behind his back. While I had control of his left wrist, he swung his right wrist in front of him. I reached and grabbed it. Clyde's arms were tensed the whole time causing me to push his arms into the small of his back in order to get the handcuffs on him. I told Clyde he was lucky he didn't end up on the ground for resisting and asked, "do you understand?". Clyde tensed his body and started to turn towards me and said, "do YOU understand?". I gave Clyde several verbal commands to sit down, which he disobeyed. Clyde actively resisted my efforts to sit him down by backing away and dodging me when I tried to grab him. I ended up pushing him to the ground, from behind, to get him on the ground. Clyde fell to the ground, rolled onto his back, and attempted to sit up. Sergeant Vazquez arrived on scene and displayed his Taser to Clyde. At this point, Clyde calmed down.

I detained Kari and placed her in my patrol car.

Clyde sustained a small abrasion to his forehead from the fall. Clyde requested rescue. Key West Rescue responded and wiped Clyde's abrasion with gauze. Clyde didn't complain of any other injuries. Sergeant Vazquez conducted the RRI investigation.

I transported Kari and Clyde to the Monroe County Detention Center and turned them over to the detention deputies without any further incidents.

Kari did violate Municipal Ordinance 62-4, CAMPING by using camp facilities at Boog Powell Court, a public place within the city limits of Key West.

Clyde did violate Municipal Ordinance 62-4, CAMPING by using camp facilities at Boog Powell Court, a public place within the city limits of Key West.

Clyde did also violate F.S.S. 843.02, RESISTING-WITHOUT VIOLENCE by disobeying my verbal commands to place his hands behind his back and sit down and by tensing and dodging me while I attempted to detain him. At the time I was a Key West Police Officer in the legal execution of my duties. Clyde should have known I was a Key West Police Officer as I was dressed in my Class B uniform. Clyde also knew me from previous law enforcement encounters.

I activated my KWPD issued bodycam and in-car Coban during this incident.
