On 10/14/2019, I, Officer K.M. O'Connell was dispatched to 3101 North Roosevelt Boulevard reference a taxi fare refusing to pay. Upon my arrival I met with the victim who stated he had picked up an individual later identified as the defendant, (Michael Zvoch) and two other people at the Conch Town Liquor and took them to the Blue Marlin Hotel. The victim states the defendant gathered some personal items and then they went to the Fairfield Inn located in the 3800 block of North Roosevelt Boulevard. The victim stated that two passengers got out and the defendant wanted to be taken to Ibis Bay.

Once at Ibis Bay the victim stated the defendant was unable to pay the $49.00 dollar fare. The victim stated he asked the defendant numerous times if he could pay the fare which he stated he could.

I observed the defendant standing by two bags, he was unsteady on his feet his speech was slurred and he had an overpowering odor of an alcoholic beverage upon his breath. I asked the defendant if he had the money to pay the cab fare which he stated he did. The defendant sat on the ground and started going through one of his bags that contained liquor bottles, snacks and some personal items.

I asked the defendant for his name at which point he stated Frankenstien. While the defendant was looking through his bag, I asked the victim if he wished to persue charges against the defendant which he stated "Yes".

The defendant was still in the seated position and I took control of his left arm in an attempt to place him under arrest. The defendant attempted to pull away from me at which point I directed the rest of his body to the ground and after a few seconds was able to secure him in hand restraints.

After securing the defendant I requested a supervisor to respond to scene based on the takedown. The defendant sustained no injuries as a result of being directed to the ground.

The defendant was placed in the back of my patrol car and while I was gathering information the defendnat was kicking the door. The defendnat was told several times to quit kicking the door, which he finally stopped kicking the door.

Sgt. P. Rodriguez responded to the scene and spoke to the defendant.

The defendant was transported and booked into the county jail without incident.

My AXON BWC was activated during my encounter with the defendant.

The bag that contained persihable items and liquor was disposed of in a trash can, the defendants personal property was placed in the KYPD Property and Evidence Section.
