J. Manuel Castillo, Sr., Director
Housing Authority of Key West, Florida
City of Key West Workforce Housing

Dear Director Castillo:

Yesterday, I faxed the attached employer verification for Yulia Vyatkina to your agency.

Regarding the overtime that Yulia has earned in 2019: this is a very unusual circumstance, and the opportunity for this amount of overtime, or any overtime, is typically not available at my company.

As you know, it is very difficult to retain employees in the Keys due to the cost of living. Although ASM offers a competitive compensation and benefits package, we too have challenges with workforce retention. We have lost quite a few Officers in the last 6 months and we are still working to rebuild. Because we must maintain our operational staffing with a specific number of Officers, overtime is inevitable in this situation. We are making headway and once we are fully staffed again, Yulia and everyone else will be back to the standard 40 hours per week.

As you can see from the attached pay statement from our last pay period, Yulia has made almost $11,500 in overtime this year. We appreciate her willingness to help us while we are short staffed, but the opportunity for this amount of overtime will be ending quite soon. Her typical annual salary would be $40,560.

I hope this sheds some light on Yulia's compensation level over the last few months. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you should have any questions.

Respectfully,

Lori Hyde
CEO
